DAVE VAN HORN

Head Coach • 14th Season • 4 SEC Championships
6 CWS Appearances • 17 Consecutive NCAA Regionals

Now entering his 14th season at the helm of the Arkansas baseball program, head coach Dave Van Horn continues to elevate the Razorbacks to one of the nation's premier teams year in and year out. Over his first 13 seasons, Van Horn has led Arkansas to four College World Series appearances, 13 NCAA Tournament berths, one Southeastern Conference overall title, three SEC Western Division championships and a total of 524 wins, averaging more than 40 wins a season.

The Razorbacks defied all the odds in 2015, rebounding from a 15-15 record on April 4 to win 18 of their final 25 regular season games and surge into postseason play. After going 2-2 in the SEC Tournament, Arkansas became one of five teams in the country to advance to 14 consecutive NCAA Tournaments, claiming the No. 2 seed in the Stillwater Regional hosted by Oklahoma State.

In what is likely Van Horn's best coaching job in his 27-year career, the Razorbacks went 3-0 in the Stillwater Regional and came back home to host the second Super Regional in program history, knocking off Missouri State in three games for the most improbable College World Series appearance in Arkansas' storied history. Van Horn made his sixth trip to Omaha, including his fourth as the Razorback skipper. He currently has more College World Series appearances than any head coach in the SEC.

During the run to Omaha, sophomore outfielder Andrew Benintendi put together the finest individual season in Razorback history. Benintendi became the first Arkansas player to win the Golden Spikes Award, given annually to the nation's best amateur player. He also won the Dick Howser Trophy and was named Baseball America Player of the Year and Collegiate Baseball Player of the Year as the nation's best collegiate player.

Benintendi became just the third player in SEC history to lead the league in home runs and batting average as he joined Rafael Palmeiro (Mississippi State, 1984) and Jeff Abbott (Kentucky, 1994) as the only players in conference history to accomplish the feat. He became the first player in school history to lead the nation in home runs (20) and became the first Division I player since 2009 to hit 20 home runs and steal 20 bases in one season. His historic season was capped by being selected No. 7 overall by the Boston Red Sox in the 2015 MLB Draft, the highest a Razorback has been drafted since Jeff King went No. 1 overall in 1986.

The 2015 Razorbacks finished 40-25, the sixth time in the past seven seasons that Arkansas won more than 40 games. Four players were selected in the MLB Draft, including Benintendi, and four Razorbacks earned conference honors. Benintendi was named the SEC Player of the Year while relief pitcher Zach Jackson was named First Team All-SEC, third baseman Bobby Wernes earned SEC All-Defensive Team honors and right-handed pitcher Keaton McKinney was named to the SEC All-Freshman Team.

Fans are flocking to Baum Stadium due to Van Horn's success. The Razorbacks finished 2015 at No. 2 in the country in average attendance for the third-straight year with an average of 8,290 fans per game. The 12,167 fans that attended the June 6 Super Regional game against Missouri State was the largest crowd in stadium history and the third-largest Super Regional crowd in NCAA history. Arkansas also set school records for actual attendance and tickets sold for a single game during the 2015 season.

In 2014, Van Horn led the Razorbacks to their 13th consecutive NCAA Tournament, making the program one of seven teams in the country to advance to the NCAA Tournament each of the last 13 seasons. Arkansas qualified for the SEC Tournament as the No. 7 seed after winning six of its final seven regular season games. The Razorbacks made plenty of noise in Hoover, defeating Texas A&M in the opening round, before knocking off No. 10 Ole Miss twice and advancing to the semifinals against LSU.

Arkansas then received an at-large bid to the NCAA Charlottesville Regional as the No. 2 seed and defeated Liberty and Bucknell to advance to the program's sixth straight Regional Final, but the Razorbacks saw their season come to an end against Virginia, who finished as the National Runner-up in Omaha.

Arkansas continued to push its best talent to the next level following the season, as six players were taken in the 2014 Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft, with five of those signing professional deals.

Following the 2014 season, Van Horn's coaching duties were far from finished as he became the manager of the USA Baseball Collegiate National Team. Leading the best collegiate players in the country against some of the top teams in the world, Van Horn and Team USA battled the Chinese Taipei in a five-game series, Japan in a three-game set and made trips to The Netherlands and Cuba. The squad finished with an overall record of 18-8-2 and captured the Haarlem-Honkbal Week

Championship in The Netherlands after defeating Japan 6-3 in the title game. It was the second time Van Horn donned the Stars and Stripes in his coaching career, as he served as an assistant coach on the Collegiate National Team in the summer of 2011.

Arkansas finished the 2013 season with a 39-22 record and an 18-11 mark in SEC play. The Razorbacks' 18 wins in league play were the most since 2010 and Arkansas won seven of 10 conference series for the first time since the 2004 season. The Razorbacks reached the regional final of the NCAA Manhattan Regional. After dropping the opening game of the regional to Bryant, Arkansas bounced back with victories over Wichita State and Bryant before falling to host school Kansas State in the regional championship.

Following the season, Arkansas set a school record with 11 players taken in the 2013 Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft. The 11 players drafted also was the most in the country, as 10 of those went on to sign professional contracts.

For the third time in his Arkansas tenure, Van Horn guided the Razorbacks to Omaha and the College World Series in 2012. Arkansas used a dominant pitching staff, timely hitting and strong defense to win the Houston Regional and Waco Super Regional to advance to the seventh College World Series in program history. The Razorbacks won their first two games of the College World Series and finished in a tie for third, equaling the second-best finish to a season in school history. Arkansas finished the season with a 46-22 record, the most wins for UA under Van Horn and the sixth-highest single-season win total in school history. The Razorbacks also won 40 games for the fourth straight season and for the 18th time in program history. Arkansas finished the season ranked in the top six in all four of the major college baseball polls, including a No. 3 national ranking in the USA Today/ESPN Coaches Poll, the NCBWA poll and the Collegiate Baseball poll.

Arkansas had a knack for winning the close games in 2012. The Razorbacks played 32 games decided by one or two runs and went 19-13 in those games. Arkansas was 14-9 in one-run games during the 2012 season and had a streak of seven-straight one-run victories late in the season. Six of the Razorbacks' seven wins in the NCAA Tournament were by one run, including a pair of 1-0 victories.

Van Horn reached a milestone as the Razorback head coach in 2012 as he earned his 400th win at Arkansas during UA's NCAA Tournament run. Van Horn's 400th win was a significant one as it came against Rice in the Houston Regional. The 1-0 victory over the eighth-ranked Owls put the Razorbacks in the driver's seat of the regional, which they would eventually win with a 5-1 win over Sam Houston State.

In what many people saw as a rebuilding season in 2011, Van Horn guided the Razorbacks to the program's fourth SEC Western Division championship and to the NCAA Tournament. After posting a 38-20 overall record through the SEC Tournament, the Razorbacks were sent to the NCAA Tempe Regional hosted by Arizona State. After dropping its opening game of the regional, Arkansas rallied to reach the regional championship game before eventually falling to the Sun Devils. Arkansas finished the season with a 40-22 record and closed the season ranked in the top 25 of every major poll with an RPI of 14.

Van Horn led Arkansas to the NCAA Tournament for the ninth consecutive year in 2010. The Razorbacks also reached the Super Regional round in back-to-back years for the first time in program history. On the strength of a 40-18 record after the SEC Tournament, the Razorbacks were selected to host an NCAA Regional for the fifth time in school history. Arkansas advanced to the Super Regionals with a 7-2 victory over Washington State in a winner-take-all regional championship game. In the Super Regionals, the Razorbacks went toe-to-toe with the tournament's top seed, Arizona State, on its home field. Arkansas lost a pair of 12-inning heartbreakers to finish the season with a 43-21 record.

Van Horn achieved three coaching milestones during the 2010 regular season. The Razorback skipper picked up his 300th win at Arkansas on April 9 in an 8-3 win over Mississippi State. On February 27 in a 10-8 win over Troy, Van Horn earned his 600th win as a Division I head coach. He recorded career win No. 900 on May 21 in a 4-3 victory at Vanderbilt.

For the second time in his Razorback coaching career, Van Horn and his team made the ultimate postseason push and collected the program's sixth trip to Omaha for the 2009 College World Series. Rebounding from a late-season slump, Arkansas advanced to the semifinals of the SEC Baseball Tournament, before earning its eighth consecutive berth into an NCAA Regional. Supported by their fans, the Razorbacks hit the road and swept their way through the Norman Regional and Tallahassee Super Regional, besting Washington State and national seeds Oklahoma and Florida State along the way. In Omaha, Arkansas won two games and tied for a third-place national finish, equaling the 1985 team for the second-best finish in program history.

The 2009 regular season had its share of highlights, too. The Razorbacks jumped out to an 8-0 start in SEC play for the first time in program history. The club achieved another first when Collegiate Baseball released its April 6 poll with Arkansas ranked No. 1, the first top ranking by any publication in program history. The Razorbacks faced Arizona State in a midweek series that same week, the first No. 1 vs. No. 1 matchup at Baum Stadium. Arkansas solidified its top billing by knocking off the Sun Devils in both games.

In the finale against Arizona State, the Razorbacks had the support of a then-Baum Stadium-record 11,014 fans. That number is a significant reminder of the traditionally strong attendance figures for the Arkansas baseball team. In 2009, the Razorbacks finished No. 2 in national attendance with an average of 7,906 fans per game.

The highly decorated coach has both individual and team honors throughout his 25-year coaching resume, beginning at Texarkana (Texas) Community College all the way through the present. Individually, he has been named national coach of the year twice, regional coach of the year twice and conference coach of the year four times. His teams have made six College World Series appearances, won five outright conference championships, a Division II National Championship and made 16 consecutive appearances in the NCAA Tournament. Van Horn is one of only 11 coaches in NCAA history to lead two programs to the College World Series.

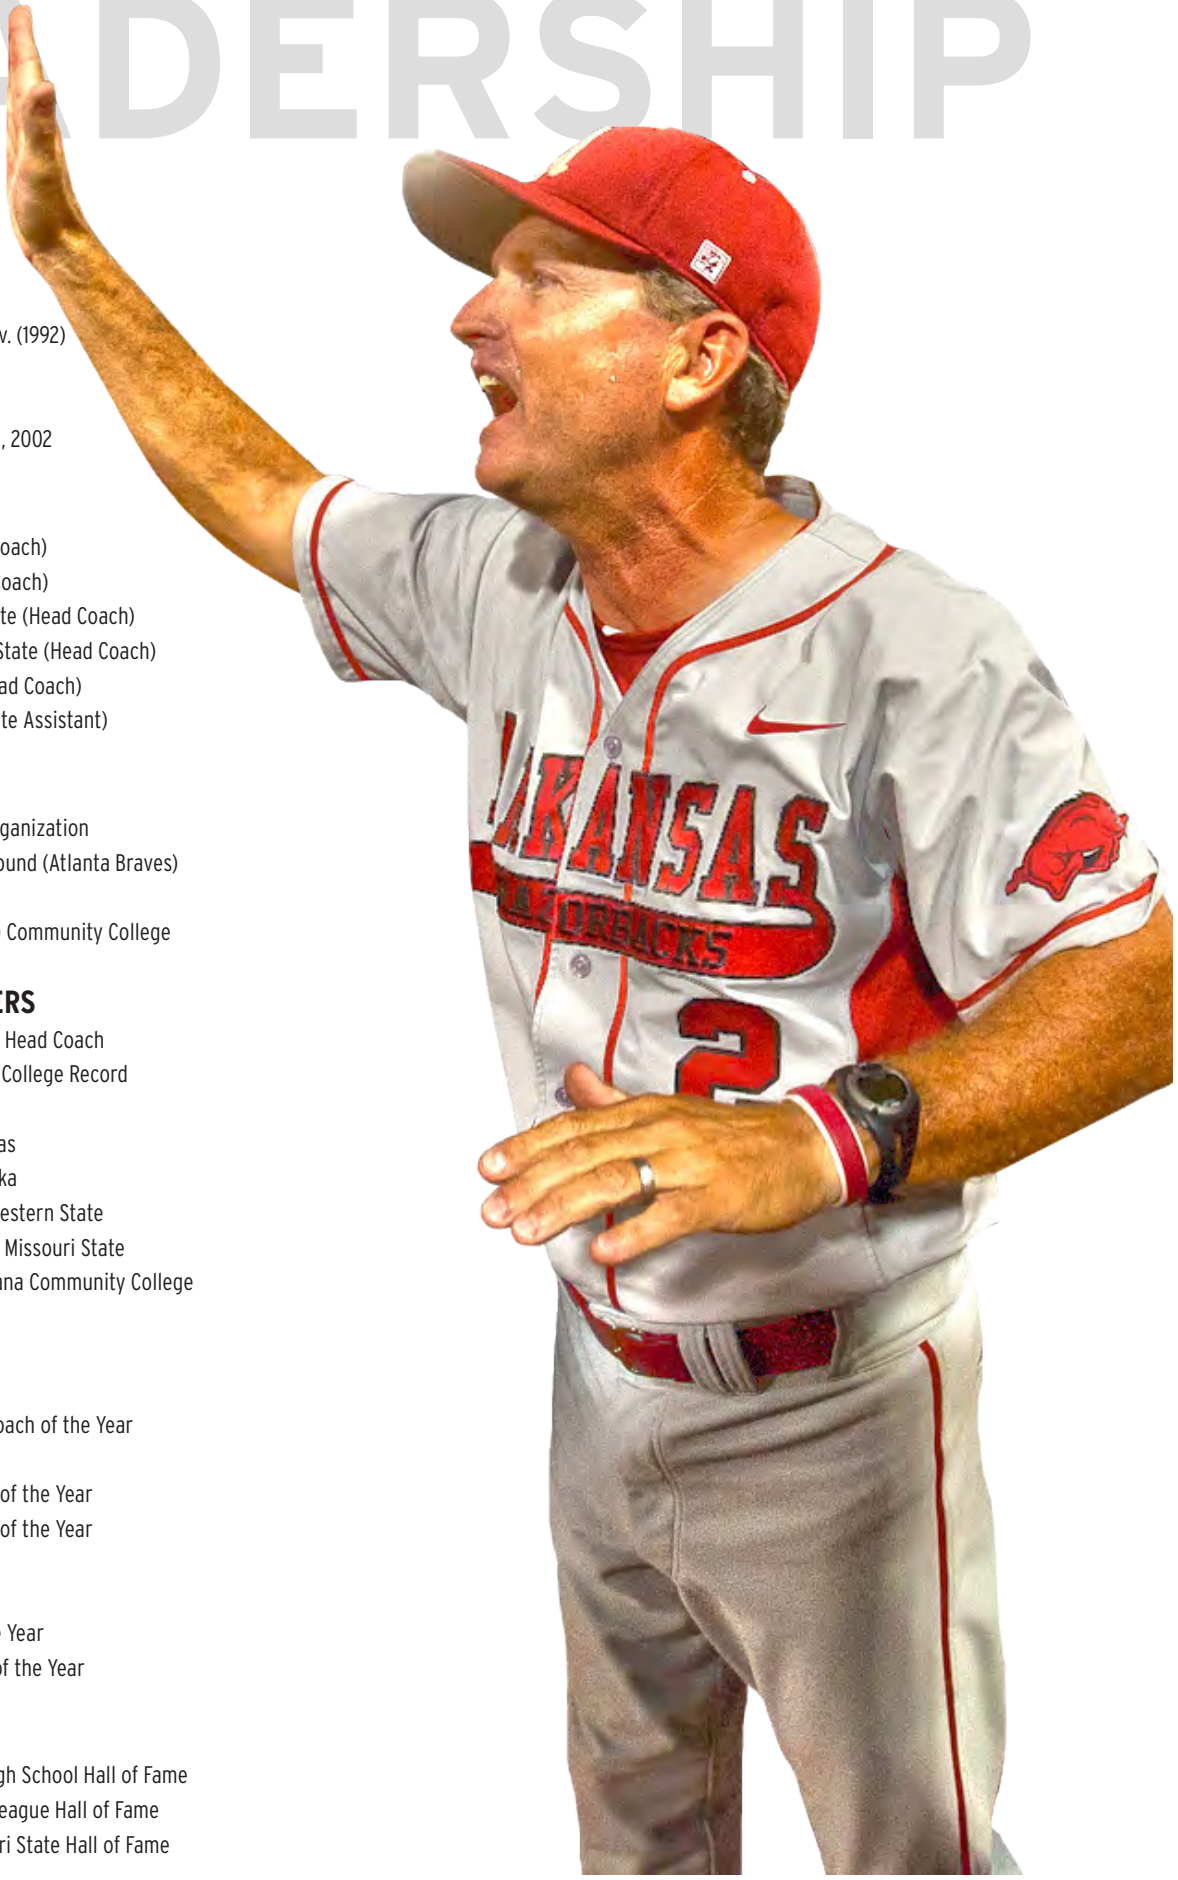

Since joining the Razorbacks as head coach, Van Horn has led his teams to an SEC Championship, three SEC Western Division titles, 14 NCAA Tournament berths and four College World Series appearances. His players have earned 17 All-America honors, 24 All-SEC nods, 88 SEC Academic Honor Roll spots and 10 Capital One Academic All-District accolades. Not resting on his laurels, Van Horn has kept his competitive juices flowing as he seeks to bring a national championship to his alma mater.

Not only have his players flourished in collegiate baseball, but several have gone on to solid professional baseball careers. More than 100 former players have signed professional contracts, including former Razorback standouts Mike Bolsinger, Zack Cox, Brett Eibner, Logan Forsythe, Craig Gentry, Dallas Keuchel, James McCann, Drew Smyly and Jess Todd. At the end of the 2014 season, Bolsinger (Dodgers), Forsythe (Rays), Keuchel (Astros), McCann (Tigers) and Smyly (Rays) were all playing at the big league level. Keuchel became the second Razorback to win a Cy Young Award when he won the AL Cy Young Award following a spectacular 2015 season.

Van Horn was successful from the moment he took over the program from legendary head coach Norm DeBriyn in 2003. During his first season, Van Horn guided his inaugural squad to both the SEC and NCAA Tournaments. His team was ranked in all four major baseball polls throughout the year and picked up series wins at No. 6 South Carolina and No. 5 Auburn.

The success of the program and Van Horn's no-nonsense approach to his team has endeared him to the Razorback faithful. The Arkansas fan base has grown steadily since Van Horn was given the reins of the program and three renovations have been completed at Baum Stadium since his arrival to accommodate the growing numbers. Baum Stadium, already one of the nicest collegiate baseball parks in the nation, has grown with the addition of nearly 5,000 chair back seats, 32 luxury boxes and now has a capacity of 10,737. Prior to the 2016 season, a 71 by 25 ✣ foot videoboard was installed to dramatically improve in-game experience and is the largest videoboard at a college baseball venue in the country.

One of the things that Van Horn is known for is recruiting fundamental players and molding them into the stars of tomorrow. In his first season with Arkansas, only two Razorbacks were taken in the Major League Baseball first year player draft. That number has grown significantly over the years with a school-record 11 players being drafted in the 2013 MLB Draft. Five of Arkansas' stars, Nick Schmidt (2007), Logan Forsythe (2008), Zack Cox (2010), Ryne Stanek (2013) and Andrew Benintendi (2015) were selected in the first round of the draft and 28 players have been picked in the first 10 rounds since he took over, with Benintendi (1st round, Boston Red Sox) and Trey Killian (9th round, Colorado Rockies) being taken in the first 10 rounds of the 2015 MLB Draft.

The Razorbacks have been successful in every facet of the game over the past 13 seasons. Hitting was the focal point in some seasons, while pitching dominated in others, but Van Horn knows that to accomplish his ultimate goal it takes a total team effort.

In 2007, Arkansas won the Razorbacks' third SEC Western Division title, when they went 18-12 in league play. The Razorbacks were 43-21 overall, hosted their fourth NCAA Regional and finished the season No. 18 in the final Collegiate Baseball rankings.

That team was one of Van Horn's best in terms of individual pitching prospects. Two-time first-team All-American Nick Schmidt was taken by the San Diego Padres in the first round of the MLB Draft (No. 23 overall). Right-handers Jess Todd and Duke Welker were each taken in the second round by St. Louis and Pittsburgh, respectively. Todd also earned second-team All-America honors.

Schmidt's success on the mound was a continuation of his 2006 season, when the lefty was named the SEC Pitcher of the Year by the league coaches. The Razorbacks went 39-21 that season and hosted another NCAA Regional.

A hot start to the 2005 season had the Razorbacks ranked as high as No. 5 nationally as they opened the year 20-2, but a rash of bad luck sidetracked what was shaping up to be a magical year. Despite the setbacks, the Razorbacks did come just a breath away from pulling one of the nation's biggest upsets as it won its first two games at the NCAA Austin Regional. Arkansas would go all the way to the final game of the regional before losing to eventual national champion Texas.

Arkansas' 2004 season was one for the history books as the Razorbacks won 45 games, shared the SEC regular-season title, hosted NCAA Regional and Super Regional games and made its fifth appearance at the College World Series. The following all came true despite the Razorbacks getting picked to finish last in the SEC's Western Division by the league coaches. Along the way, Arkansas won 19 SEC games, swept a weekend series in Baton Rouge, Louisiana against No. 2 LSU and dispatched a tough Florida State team in the Super Regional in two games. The Razorback sweep of LSU was the first time since 1988 that the Tigers had been swept at home by a conference opponent. The Razorback accomplishments led to a top 10 finish in all four major collegiate baseball polls, including a No. 6 ranking by Baseball America.

Prior to taking the helm of the Arkansas program on June 21, 2002, Van Horn enjoyed a very successful five-year run as the head coach at the University of Nebraska. In a short period of time, he built a once-fledgling program into a national powerhouse. Prior to his arrival, the Cornhuskers had made just four postseason appearances in 108 years of baseball history. With their new skipper on the bench, Nebraska went to four NCAA Tournaments and two College World Series.

During his stint with Nebraska, Van Horn amassed a 214-92 (.699) record, won three consecutive Big 12 Tournament titles and earned Nebraska's first regular-season conference title in 51 years. He was twice named the American Baseball Coaches Association's Midwest Region Coach of the Year and posted back-to-back 50-win seasons in 2000 and 2001. In his second season with Nebraska, Van Horn guided his club to its first NCAA Tournament berth in 18 years after it won the Big 12 Tournament, its first title of any kind in nearly 50 years.

Similar to what he has done at Arkansas, Nebraska's players shined with Van Horn at the helm. The Cornhuskers had at least one player named a finalist for national player of the year honors in three seasons including a pair of Dick Howser Award Finalists. Seven players were named first-team All-America and 26 earned All-Big 12 accolades including a school-record nine in 2000. The Cornhuskers also excelled in the classroom with 30 Phillips 66 Academic All-Big 12 selections (21 first-teamers) and seven players named academic all-district.

Prior to his move to Nebraska, Van Horn coached three seasons with Northwestern State in Natchitoches, Louisiana his first foray as a head coach in Division I. He went 106-65 (.620) in those three seasons and won two Southland Conference regular-season titles (1995 and 1997). Each title also earned him Southland Conference Coach of the Year honors.

Van Horn spent one season at the Division II level, coaching Central Missouri State in 1994, and his effects there were awe-inspiring. Taking the reins of the program with just six weeks of preparation before the season, the Mules got off to a quick start by winning 12 of their first 13 games and eventually put together a 21-game winning streak. CMSU won the MIAA Conference Championship and the tournament title before eventually dominating at the NCAA Championships to win the school's first national championship. In 2000, Central Missouri honored Van Horn and his 1994 team by inducting them into the Central Missouri State Hall of Fame.

The storied career of Van Horn as a head coach began with a humble start at Texarkana (Texas) Community College in 1989. In five seasons with the Bulldogs, Van Horn guided Texarkana to a 214-72 (.748) record. He set records for single-season wins in four of his five seasons, beginning with his first, and guided his 1992 squad to the NJCAA Texas Eastern Conference Championships.

Prior to his first stint as a head coach, Van Horn worked with the man he replaced at Arkansas, DeBriyn, for four seasons as a graduate assistant, assisting the Razorbacks to a pair of College World Series. Arkansas was 184-71-1 (.721) while he was a GA and made the NCAA Regional Tournament in each of his four seasons.

Van Horn's playing career was spent in the infield, where he was a highly touted player. Two seasons at McLennan (Texas) Community College earned him All-America, Region 5 Player of the Year, all-conference and all-region honors. The standout defensive third baseman was drafted by the Chicago White Sox, but instead Van Horn transferred to Arkansas.

In one year with the Razorbacks, Van Horn earned All-Southwest Conference honors as well as the team's most valuable player and SWC Newcomer of the Year accolades. Following his junior year, the Atlanta Braves selected Van Horn in the 10th round of the 1982 draft. Van Horn would spend three seasons with the Braves organization before returning to Fayetteville to begin his coaching career.

Van Horn is married to the former Karen Lee (University of Arkansas '88). The couple has two daughters, Hollan Clark who is married to Jacob Clark and Mariel Van Horn who is a 2016 high school senior.

TONY VITELLO

Assistant Coach • Recruiting Coordinator
11 NCAA Tournament Appearances • 1 CWS Appearance

22

Tony Vitello, considered one of the top recruiters in the country, enters his third year as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator for the University of Arkansas baseball team.

During his career, Vitello has accomplished a rare feat, mentoring both a National Hitter of the Year and National Pitcher of the Year. Arkansas' Andrew Benintendi was the nation's best hitter in 2015 and won the Golden Spikes Award as the nation's top amateur baseball player after batting .376 with 20 home runs, 57 RBIs and 24 stolen bases.

In 2008, Vitello tutored Missouri's Aaron Crow who won the Roger Clemens Award that season, given to the nation's top college pitcher. Crow pitched 43 scoreless innings at one point during the season and had four shutouts. He struck out 127 hitters and won 13 games and became the highest draft pick in Missouri baseball history when he was selected No. 9 overall by the Washington Nationals.

Throughout his 13-year Division I coaching career, Vitello has signed seven top 15 recruiting classes, developed six first round draft picks and 11 Major League Baseball including standouts like Max Scherzer, Ian Kinsler, Kyle Gibson, Crow and Brandon Finnegan.

He was instrumental in Arkansas' run to the College World Series in 2015 as the Razorbacks rebounded from a 15-15 record on April 4 to win 18 of their final 25 regular season games. Primarily working with hitters and serving as the team's third base coach, the Razorbacks slugged their way into the postseason, finishing fifth in the SEC in hitting (.288) and fourth in home runs (53).

Vitello played a large role in the development and transformation of Benintendi into the nation's best amateur player. Between his freshman and sophomore seasons, Benintendi improved his batting average by 100 points and belted 19 more home runs. Benintendi finished the 2015 season batting .376 with 20 home runs and 24 stolen bases, and earned the Golden Spikes Award as the nation's best amateur player. Benintendi became the first Razorback to lead the nation in home runs and just the third player in SEC history to lead the conference in home runs and batting average.

Three hitters signed professional contracts following the 2015 season, including Benintendi who was selected No. 7 overall by the Boston Red Sox. Third baseman Bobby Wernes improved his slugging percentage by 202 points from the 2014 to 2015 seasons and was selected in the 30th round of the MLB Draft while outfielder Tyler Spoon batted 71 points higher and drove in 17 more runs from a season ago. Spoon was picked in the 35th round by the Red Sox.

As Arkansas' recruiting coordinator, Vitello has also done an excellent job signing some of the nation's top talent. His most recent class, the Class of 2016, was ranked No. 6 nationally by Perfect Game and he previously signed the nation's top class for the Razorbacks in 2014.

In his first season at Arkansas in 2014, Vitello made an immediate impact working with the hitters, as the Razorbacks improved their batting average, on base percentage and slugging percentage. Arkansas hitters also saw a boost in total hits, triples, home runs, runs batted in and runs scored.

The offense helped lead Arkansas to its 13th straight NCAA Tournament appearance at the Charlottesville Regional as the Razorbacks advanced to the NCAA Regional Final for the sixth straight season. The 40-win campaign was also the fifth in the last six seasons for Arkansas.

Vitello saw three Razorback hitters selected in the 2014 Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft, as Brian Anderson (3rd round – Marlins), Eric Fisher (17th round – Marlins) and Tyler Spoon (36th round – A's) were taken, while Anderson and Fisher signed professional contracts.

His second full recruiting class at Arkansas garnered national attention, being ranked No. 1 in the country by Perfect Game USA and No. 4 in the land by Baseball America. The class, which took the field in 2015, featured 20 players, including 14 true freshmen and six junior college transfers.

Vitello came to Arkansas after spending three seasons as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at TCU. Prior to TCU, he was an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Missouri for eight years.

In his three years at TCU, Vitello brought in some of the top players in the country and helped the Horned Frogs to two NCAA Tournament appearances, including a Super Regional berth in 2012. The Horned Frogs started seven freshmen recruited by Vitello in the super regional at UCLA. His final recruiting class at TCU was ranked 17th in the country and three student-athletes he signed also played for Team USA.

In 2013, 11 newcomers from an 11th-ranked recruiting class saw time on the field for TCU. A pair of Horned Frog freshmen earned freshman All-America honors as Boomer White hit .314 with 27 RBI, while Alex Young was 7-4 with five saves in 22 appearances, 20 in relief. Despite featuring four new faces, TCU's pitching staff ranked in the top 20 in most pitching categories during the 2013 season.

Vitello's 2012 recruiting class was ranked in the top 10 nationally by Baseball America, and the group paid immediate dividends for the Horned Frogs as 16 players made their debut during the 2012 season. Right-handed pitcher Brandon Finnegan and infielder Taylor Featherston were both members of this class. Finnegan made his Major League debut just a few months after being selected in the first round of the 2014 MLB Draft and pitched for the Kansas City Royals in the 2014 World Series. Featherston was called up to the Los Angeles Angels in 2015 and played 101 games.

Despite the team's youth, the 2012 squad had success on the field, winning the Mountain West Conference regular season and advancing to the super regionals where they started six freshmen before falling to UCLA. Four Horned Frog hitters earned all-conference accolades and six TCU players were selected in the MLB Draft.

In his first season at TCU in 2011, Vitello worked with a TCU offense that finished the season with a .306 batting average and averaged 6.7 runs per game. The team hit 141 doubles on the season, which ranked fourth all-time in school history. The Horned Frogs finished the season with 43 victories and advanced to the NCAA Regional. Five offensive players earned all-conference honors and four offensive players were selected in the 2011 MLB Draft.

In his eight seasons at Missouri, the Tigers made the postseason seven times. Vitello served as the pitching coach at Missouri, while also working with the team's hitters and serving as the first base coach. Vitello's 2008 recruiting class at Missouri was ranked No. 11 nationally by Baseball America and he had top 25 recruiting classes in three of his final four years at Missouri.

Under Vitello the Tigers' ERA was consistently among the best in the Big 12 Conference, highlighted by a 3.17 mark in 2005 and a 3.36 ERA in 2006. The 2006 ERA led the Big 12 and was 11th best nationally.

In 2009, Kyle Gibson led the Big 12 with 131 strikeouts and ranked second in the league with 11 wins on the season. The 131 strikeouts tied the school record and the 11 wins was second most in Missouri baseball history. Gibson was selected by Minnesota in the first round of the 2009 MLB Draft, joining Aaron Crow as a first-round selection the year before. Gibson finished his career at MU with 28 wins and 304 strikeouts, which both ranked second all-time at Missouri.

Crow, who was first taken ninth in the 2008 MLB Draft, was selected with the 12th overall pick by Kansas City in 2009. In 2008, Crow became the second MU pitcher in four years to be named the Big 12 Pitcher of the Year. Crow, a first-team All-American, was also the recipient of the Clemens Award, which is given to the nation's top collegiate pitcher. He finished 2008 with a 13-0 record, setting a new school record for wins in a season, and had an ERA of 2.85.

During the 2008 season, Crow had a stretch of 43.0 scoreless innings pitched from Feb. 29 – April 11 that was the fourth longest streak in NCAA history. Another member of the Tigers' staff, Ian Berger, put together a string of 36.1 scoreless innings pitched from March 9-29. Crow and Gibson each earned All-Big 12 recognition in 2008 and Gibson was a first-team All-Big 12 selection in 2009.

In 2007, the MU pitching staff ranked fourth in the Big 12 with an ERA of 4.25. That staff included an All-Big 12 first-team selection in Crow and a second-team honoree, Rick Zagone. Zagone earned Big 12 and National Pitcher of the Week honors after throwing a near no-hitter against Kansas State.

In 2006, the MU pitching staff recorded seven shutouts and held opponents to two or fewer runs in 19 of the 63 games. In the NCAA Regional, a pair of freshmen, Zagone and Crow, recorded back-to-back complete game victories, each allowing just one run on six hits as Mizzou went on to claim the Malibu Regional Championship.

Vitello helped mold Max Scherzer into the 11th overall draft pick in the 2006 MLB Draft. Scherzer, the 2005 Big 12 Pitcher of the Year and one of the nation's top pitchers in 2005 and 2006, improved from an ERA of 5.85 as a freshman in 2004 to a dominant 1.86 in his sophomore season, when he led the Big 12 in ERA, strikeouts (131) and opponents' batting average (.163). As a junior, Scherzer had a 2.25 ERA despite fighting injuries much of the season.

During the 2005 season, the Tigers had a stretch of 26 innings without allowing a run from March 14-19 after putting together a 23-scoreless-inning stretch earlier that season. One of the most impressive pitching outings in recent history came against Texas Tech in April of 2005, when Missouri recorded the school's first no-hitter since 1981. In 2006, five Missouri pitchers were taken in the draft with two drafted in the first four rounds.

As recruiting coordinator, Vitello was instrumental in bringing some of the nation's top prospects to Missouri. The 2008 class was ranked among Collegiate Baseball's Top-20 recruiting classes and Baseball America voted the class the 11th best nationally.

Following his playing career and the completion of his management degree at MU, Vitello joined the Missouri coaching staff as a volunteer assistant in 2003. He also completed his course work for his master's degree in business. The following season he was elevated to full-time assistant coach.

During his time as a Tiger assistant coach, Vitello recruited and/or developed 19 players who were drafted by major league teams, including major leaguers Ian Kinsler, Max Scherzer, Aaron Crow, Kyle Gibson, Nick Tepesch, Doug Mathis, Justin James, Matt Stites and Ryan Lollis.

Vitello also served as the associate head coach for the Salina Packers of the California Collegiate League in 2002. The Packers finished 50-14 and earned their first trip to the NBC World Series in Wichita, Kansas.

A three-year letterwinner at Missouri, Vitello earned Academic All-Big 12 Conference honors as a senior and was named to the Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll twice.

DAVE JORN

Assistant Coach • Pitching Coach
6 CWS Appearances • 4 SEC Championships

31

Beginning his 20th overall season with the Razorbacks in 2016, Dave Jorn has made a lasting and profound impression on the baseball program. In his second stint with Arkansas, Jorn is beginning his 14th season as the pitching coach with head coach Dave Van Horn.

Jorn's unmistakable impact on the Razorback baseball program can not only be seen on the pitcher's mound, but in the locker room and on the draft boards of every Major League Baseball team.

During two assistant coaching stints in Fayetteville, Jorn has been a part of nearly 800 wins, six trips to the College World Series and 18 NCAA Tournament berths. In addition, the Razorbacks have enjoyed 13 40-win seasons, two 50-win campaigns and his pitchers have tossed five no-hit games.

Since 2003, 31 Arkansas pitchers have been drafted and since 2009, 17 of the 18 Razorback pitchers that have been drafted improved their draft stock by coming to school at Arkansas and learning under Jorn. Three of Jorn's former pupils at the U of A saw time in Major League Baseball during the 2015 season as Dallas Keuchel (Houston Astros), Drew Smyly (Detroit Tigers) and Mike Bolsinger (Los Angeles Dodgers) were all in the big leagues.

Since returning to Arkansas in 2003, Jorn has had eight pitching staffs finish the season with an ERA of less than 4.00, including in five of the last six seasons. Over the last five seasons, his pitching staffs have accounted for four of the 10 lowest team ERAs in program history, including a school-record 1.89 team ERA in 2013, and a second-best 2.63 ERA in 2014. The 2012 squad had a team ERA of 2.83, the fourth-best in school history, while the 2011 pitching staff finished the season with a 3.20 team ERA.

Jorn returned to Arkansas in 2003 after a 14-year career in Major League Baseball as a coach for the New York Mets, New York Yankees and Arizona Diamondbacks. Prior to working in the pros, he spent six years with the Razorbacks under legendary Arkansas head coach Norm DeBriyn. In his second tour of duty with the Razorbacks, he has revived Arkansas' pitching fortunes once again.

Utilizing timely pitching, the 2015 Razorbacks engineered one of the best turnarounds in program history. Despite starting the season 15-15, Arkansas rallied to win 18 of its final 25 regular season games and capitalized on its momentum in the postseason.

Closer Zach Jackson was a first team All-SEC selection after dominating hitters to close out ball games. Jackson finished the season with a 2.10 ERA and nine saves and struck out a staggering 89 hitters in 60.0 innings pitched. In the decisive Game 3 of the Super Regional against Missouri State, Jackson took the mound in the sixth inning and dominanted, pitching 3.2 innings allowing one hit, no runs and striking out six as he pitched the Razorbacks into the College World Series.

Arkansas' pitching staff was decimated by injuries as three of the team's top four starting pitchers were unable to pitch in Omaha. Despite the attrition and a shortage of southpaws, Jorn's staff was able to keep the team firing on all cylinders.

Freshman Keaton McKinney led the staff with a 6-2 record and 3.21 ERA in 18 starts. The right-hander was named to the SEC All-Freshman team after tossing two complete games and keeping hitters off balance with one of the conference's best changeups.

Following the season, right-hander Trey Killian was selected in the ninth round of the 2015 MLB Draft by the Colorado Rockies, becoming the 11th Razorback pitcher to be drafted in the past three seasons.

Under the tutelage of Jorn, the pitching staff was the anchor of the 2014 team, as eight pitchers had an ERA of 3.00 or less and two relievers combined for 52 appearances and each had ERAs under 1.00. Michael Gunn led the way with a 0.74 ERA and seven saves out of the bullpen, while Jacob Stone was equally impressive with a 0.94 ERA and 4-0 record. The starting rotation was again one of the best in the SEC as Jalen Beeks led the way with a 1.98 ERA, while Chris Oliver totaled a team-high nine victories and Trey Killian paced the trio with an SEC-best four complete games. Arkansas allowed two runs or less in 34 of 65 games and added 10 shutouts to tie for the second most in program history.

Three members of the pitching staff were drafted, as Oliver (4th round, Phillies), Beeks (12th round, Red Sox) and Gunn (16th round, Red Sox) all signed contracts to continue their careers at the professional level. Killian was also awarded an opportunity to continue playing as he accepted an invitation to play for the USA Baseball Collegiate National Team.

The 2013 Arkansas pitching staff ranks as the best in school history and among the best nationally in recent history. The Razorbacks finished the season with a nation's best team ERA of 1.89, becoming the first school in the country to finish with a sub-2.00 ERA since Le Moyne in 1992. Arkansas' team ERA was the lowest for any team since 1976, when Connecticut posted a 1.71 team ERA. Arkansas also led the country in hits allowed per nine innings (6.78) and was fifth nationally in walks and hits allowed per innings pitched (1.11).

The Razorback pitching staff was stout from start to finish with the highest ERA on the team being Killian's 3.19. All three of Arkansas' weekend starters finished with an ERA of 2.03 or below, led by second-team All-American and first-team All-SEC selection Ryne Stanek, who posted a 10-2 record with a 1.39 ERA. Barrett Astin compiled a 4-4 record with a 1.79 ERA, while Randall Fant enjoyed a breakout senior season with a 6-1 record and a 2.03 ERA. The Razorback bullpen combined for a 1.94 ERA. Colby Suggs set a single-season school record with 13 saves and a 1.74 ERA in 23 appearances. Beeks pitched in a team-high 29 games and went 6-2 with two saves and a 2.20 ERA, while Brandon Moore was 1-4 with a 2.68 ERA in 25 appearances.

Seven members of the pitching staff were selected in the 2013 MLB Draft, part of a school-record and nation-leading 11 Arkansas players taken in the draft. Along with Stanek (1st round, Tampa Bay Rays), Suggs (2nd round, Miami Marlins), Astin (3rd round, Milwaukee Brewers), Moore (17th round, Milwaukee Brewers) and Fant (29th round, Houston Astros), Arkansas pitchers Trent Daniel (17th round, Colorado Rockies) and Tyler Wright (26th round, Seattle Mariners) were also selected in the draft. Daniel had a 2.55 ERA with a 0-1 record and one save in 22 appearances, while Wright went 1-1 in 11 appearances and only allowed four unearned runs in 20.1 innings.

In 2012, Arkansas finished the season with a team ERA of 2.83, the third-lowest single-season ERA in school history. The Razorbacks ranked second in the SEC and fifth in the country in team ERA. Jorn's pitching staff was even better in the NCAA Tournament. In 10 NCAA Tournament games, Arkansas' pitching staff had a 1.92 ERA, including a team ERA of 1.80 in four College World Series games. Arkansas ranked fourth nationally in hits allowed per nine innings, giving up just 7.53 hits per nine innings. The Razorbacks finished the season with 10 shutouts, which ranked as the second-highest single-season total in school history.

Individually, 10 members of the 2012 pitching staff finished the season with an ERA under 3.20 (minimum 10 appearances). DJ Baxendale and Stanek each earned All-SEC honors from SEBaseball.com. Stanek also earned honorable mention All-America honors from CollegeBaseballInsider.com. Baxendale finished the season with an 8-5 record and a 3.11 ERA, while Stanek was 8-4 with a 2.82 ERA. Astin and Suggs headlined a strong Arkansas bullpen. Astin finished the season with 11 saves, which tied for the third-highest single-season total in school history, and a 1.99 ERA. Suggs compiled a 7-1 record with a 1.38 ERA. Three members of the Razorback pitching staff were drafted in the 2012 MLB Draft. Nolan Sanburn was selected by the Oakland Athletics in the second round, Baxendale was a 10th-round pick of the Minnesota Twins and Fant was drafted in the 29th round by the Cleveland Indians.

Jorn's pitching staff in 2011 ranked among the best in the SEC and nationally. The Razorback pitching staff finished the season with a team ERA of 3.20, ranking fourth in the conference and 27th nationally. Arkansas' team ERA was the 10th-best in program history. The Razorback pitching staff combined to allow just 7.86 hits per nine innings, which ranked 14th in the country. The Razorback bullpen was particularly strong in 2011, setting a new single-season school record with 20 saves and posting a 20-8 record with a 2.51 ERA.

Three of Jorn's pupils earned conference and national recognition following the 2011 season. Baxendale was named second-team All-SEC and earned all-region honors after finishing his junior season with a 10-2 record, three saves and a 1.58 ERA. Baxendale was the first Razorback pitcher to record double-digit wins in a season since Nick Schmidt in 2007 and posted the fifth-lowest ERA in program history. Astin and Sanburn each earned freshman All-America honors following the season. Astin appeared in a team-high 27 games and had a 5-2 record with three saves and a 2.72 ERA. Sanburn led Arkansas with eight saves and compiled a 2-4 record with a 3.62 ERA.

In 2010, the Razorback rotation finished the year with a 3.93 ERA, finishing third in the conference and posting the first sub-4.00 ERA since the 2007 season. Arkansas pitchers also posted the second-best strikeout to walk ratio in school history at 2.92, fanning 551 batters and issuing just 189 bases on balls.

The ace of the Razorback pitching staff in 2010 was Drew Smyly. The southpaw finished the year with a 9-1 record and a 2.80 ERA. He was recognized for his stellar season by earning All-SEC honors. Smyly, who made his Major League debut in 2012 with the Detroit Tigers, was drafted in the second round of the 2010 MLB Draft by the Tigers with the 68th overall pick.
Jorn's 2007 starting rotation was possibly the best three-man rotation in college baseball and one of the best in school history. Nick Schmidt, who garnered All-America honors for the second consecutive season, anchored a rotation that included junior college transfers Jess Todd and Duke Welker. The trio combined for 27 wins, 315 innings, a .217 opponent batting average and 319 strikeouts.

Under Jorn's guidance, Schmidt finished his three-year Razorback career as one of the most-decorated players to ever don an Arkansas uniform. His 11-3 record and career-low 2.69 ERA in 2007 cumulated a career that produced a 28-8 record, 2.83 ERA and a school record 345 strikeouts. Schmidt also earned SEC Pitcher of the Year honors in 2006.

Schmidt was drafted in the first round of the 2007 Major League Baseball Draft by the San Diego Padres with the 23rd overall selection. He became the first Razorback to be drafted in the first round since 1999 and just the fourth first-rounder in school history.

Jorn's trio of starting pitchers were all selected by the 82nd overall pick in the second round of the 2007 MLB Draft. Welker went with the 68th pick to the Pittsburgh Pirates, while Todd was taken No. 82 by the St. Louis Cardinals. Both Schmidt and Todd were picked as first-team All-SEC selections by league coaches. Todd also earned second-team All-America honors with a 9-3 record, two saves, two complete games and 128 strikeouts, which tied for the third-most in a single season in school history. During the summer of 2009, Todd was called up by the St. Louis Cardinals to join the big-league team.

The Razorbacks' 2007 pitchers recorded a school-record 565 strikeouts in 569 innings of work for 8.9 strikeouts per nine innings that ranked fifth nationally. The staff also garnered a 2.58 strikeout-to-walk ratio and held opponents to a .249 batting average. The 2006 staff, led by Schmidt, posted a team ERA of 3.64, the lowest in 15 years.

In 2006, Schmidt finished 9-3 with 145 strikeouts and was named the league's top pitcher by the coaches. His 145 strikeouts were also the second-most in a single season in Arkansas history. Jorn also molded lefty Devin Collis into one of the league's top closers, finishing with nine saves. Shaun Seibert also came into his own under Jorn's guidance, posting a 2.79 ERA that ranked second in the SEC.

In 2005, Arkansas compiled a 4.05 ERA and rode the strong arms of Charley Boyce and freshman All-American Schmidt to 39 wins and an NCAA Regional berth. Seibert and Schmidt were both named to the Collegiate Baseball Freshman All-America team for their standout efforts.

In 2004, the Razorbacks claimed a share of the SEC overall title and advanced to the College World Series for the first time in 15 seasons. Under Jorn's guidance, Razorback hurlers posted the lowest team ERA since 1991 with a 3.87 mark. Jorn helped Boyce post a 10-3 record and a 3.20 ERA in 2004, while part-time starter Jay Sawatski also posted a 10-3 record with a 3.38 ERA. The Razorbacks' bullpen was equally effective under Jorn's instruction in 2004 as the relievers recorded a 3.72 ERA with a 25-11 record and 16 saves.

Jorn first served as Arkansas' pitching coach from 1983-88. During Jorn's time on DeBriyn's staff, Arkansas posted a record of 268-108 (.713), competed in five NCAA Regionals and earned trips to the 1985 and the 1987 College World Series. Six different Razorback pitchers earned All-Southwest Conference honors during that span, including Kevin Campbell ('84), Tim Deitz ('85), Bobby Edwards ('87, '88), Fred Farwell ('85), Steve Parker ('86) and Tim Peters ('87). Van Horn and Jorn coached together on the UA staff from 1985-88. Van Horn was a graduate assistant while Jorn was in the midst of his first stint as UA's pitching coach.

Jorn left the Razorback program in January of 1989 to work in player development in the New York Yankees' minor league system. He was the pitching coach at Class A Prince William, Virginia in the Carolina League in 1989, helping the Cannons to a league title. Jorn then served in the same position in the Class A South Atlantic League in Greensboro, North Carolina in 1990. He spent two years (1991-92) as the pitching coach at the Yankees' Class AA affiliate in Albany, New York, helping the team to a league championship in 1991.

He joined the New York Mets' organization in 1993 and worked with their Class A South Atlantic League affiliate in Columbia, South Carolina in 1993-94. Jorn transferred to Kingsport, Tennessee to serve as pitching coach for the Mets in the Class A rookie league from 1995-96, winning a league title in 1996. He then returned to Columbia for the 1997 season.

In 1998, he was hired by the Arizona Diamondbacks and worked as the pitching coach in Lethbridge, Ontario, Canada, in the organization's short season Class A league club in the Pioneer League.

Jorn spent the next two seasons (1999-2000) with the Diamondbacks' Class A Midwest League affiliate in South Bend, Indiana. He served as the pitching coach in 1999 before being elevated to the role of manager in 2000.

Jorn rejoined the Yankees' organization in 2001 as a scout covering the Midwest. He was responsible for scouting in the states of Arkansas, Kansas, Missouri, Nebraska, North Dakota and South Dakota. Following the 2001 draft, he managed the Yankees' Class A short season team playing in the New York-Penn League in Staten Island, New York.

Prior to his initial tenure at Arkansas, he was the pitching coach at Lurleen B. Wallace (Alabama) Junior College for one season.

Jorn and Melinda Gatling were married in April 2007. They have two daughters, Molly Kuhl (30), who is married to Kaleb Kuhl with two sons, Bryant (3) and Briggs (1), and Maggie Gatling (23). Jorn also has a daughter, Christina, who has twins Kellen and Alexis (13).

CLAY GOODWIN

Director of Baseball Operations
9th Season • Arkansas (2005)

Clay Goodwin is entering his ninth season with the Arkansas coaching staff as its Director of Baseball Operations.

In his capacity as the Director of Baseball Operations, Goodwin coordinates many of the behind-the-scenes aspects of the Razorback baseball program as he works in conjunction with the Arkansas coaching staff.

Prior to his appointment to Director of Operations, Goodwin spent the 2006 season as the Razorbacks' fifth-year student assistant coach. He assisted the UA coaching staff with practices, day-to-day administrative duties and game day activities. He helped then-hitting coach Todd Butler with hitting instruction, while assisting with the Razorbacks' infield. He then served as a team manager for Arkansas during the 2007 season.

Goodwin was an outstanding player for the Razorbacks over four seasons and his name is littered throughout the Arkansas record book. An excellent defensive third baseman, he was also known to have an effective bat as he finished his career with a .297 average, 49 doubles, 12 home runs and 127 RBI. At the conclusion of his four years, he ranked eighth in career at bats (750), tied for ninth in career hits (223) and tied for fifth in career singles (157). Goodwin appeared in 202 games as a Razorback, making 193 starts.

He hit a team-best .332 as a sophomore and followed that with a team-leading .319 average as a junior. His run production spiked as a senior with a career-best five home runs, 17 doubles and 42 RBI. He also finished his career with a .934 fielding percentage at third base and 408 assists.

Goodwin was born on Oct. 1, 1981, and graduated from the University of Arkansas in May of 2005 with a degree in kinesiology. He completed his master's degree in the fall of 2006 at the University of Arkansas in workforce development.

Goodwin is married to the former Jill Johnson. They have one daughter, Caroline (4), and one son, Gage Russell (1).

Volunteer Assistant Coach
2nd Season • Arkansas (2011)

Christian Kowalchuk is entering his second season as the volunteer assistant coach for the Arkansas baseball team after serving two seasons as a graduate assistant coach.

Kowalchuk is no stranger to the Arkansas baseball program, having played for the Razorbacks in 2009 and 2010, including an appearance in the 2009 College World Series. The left-hander made 29 appearances in his Razorback career, posting a 2.77 earned run average with a 3-0 record.

Kowalchuk assists pitching coach Dave Jorn with the pitching staff and will work with the team's catchers this season.

In his first season as the volunteer assistant coach, Kowalchuk helped the Razorbacks rebound from a 15-15 start to win 18 of their final 25 regular season games and advance to the school's eighth College World Series. He helped two pitchers earn all-conference honors as relief pitcher Zach Jackson was a first team All-SEC selection and right-hander Keaton McKinney was named to the SEC All-Freshman Team.

As a graduate assistant coach in 2013 and 2014, he assisted with the pitchers as Arkansas made back-to-back NCAA Regionals and posted the two lowest earned run averages in program history, including the nation's best 1.89 ERA in 2013. The Razorbacks also led the country in hits allowed per nine innings (6.78) in 2013.

Kowalchuk was named to the Academic Honor Roll as a player in 2009 and earned Outstanding Student Award honors in the graduate program in 2013.

As a member of the Seward County Junior College baseball team from 2007-08, Kowalchuk earned Freshman NJCAA All-American honors in 2007, All-Conference honors in 2007 and 2008 and Preseason All-American honors in 2008. He also appeared on the Dean's List in both seasons at Seward County Junior College.

He took his talents to the professional ranks following his days as a Razorback, signing a contract with the Kansas City T-Bones in the summer of 2012, before inking with the Evansville Otters in the summer of 2013.

Kowalchuk served as an assistant coach at Seward County Community College during the 2012 season, working under NJCAA Hall of Fame Coach Galen McSpadden and helping lead the team to the Region 6 playoffs. He helped coordinate practice and was in charge of the strength and conditioning program.

Kowalchuk earned his Bachelor of Arts in Economics in 2011 and completed his Masters of Physical Education in 2013 at the University of Arkansas.

In 2014, Hogan played at McLennan Community College and earned North Texas JCAC All-Conference second team recognition. He recorded a .361 batting average with 45 RBI and stole 22 bases in 25 attempts.

He played his freshman season at Dallas Baptist where he started six games and drove in two runs. He was a perfect 2-for-2 in stolen base attempts in 2013.

A standout at Belton High School, Hogan earned all-state, all-area and all-district honors as a junior and senior. He was named the Central Texas MVP after hitting .380 with eight home runs and 50 RBI as a senior. In 2011, batted .467 with six home runs and 56 RBI.

Facilities

BAUM STADIUM

When discussing the best college baseball facilities in the country, Baum Stadium is consistently among one of the first places mentioned. With room for more than 10,000 spectators, an impeccable playing surface and amenities that rival most minor league ballparks, it is the crown jewel of the collegiate ranks. Of course the physical properties of Baum Stadium are only a portion of the baseball experience with the remainder in the form of fans that flock to the corner of Razorback Road and 15th Street to watch their Razorbacks take on all comers.

Officially named Baum Stadium at George Cole Field at its dedication on May 3, 1996, the facility derives its name from primary backers as well as from the history of Razorback baseball. Arkansas' facility prior to Baum Stadium was George Cole Field and the new park preserved the tradition with its current name.

In 1998, Baum Stadium received a special honor, when it was named the nation's No. 1 facility in Baseball America's poll of best college facilities. Five years later it took second in the same poll, cementing its legacy as one of the best facilities in the nation. Since its construction, Arkansas officials have received numerous solicitations by coaches and administrators from across the country for blueprints and tours of the Razorbacks' home ballpark in an attempt to capture some of its charm. Even though Baum Stadium has been replicated to some degree, no other place in the country has the atmosphere that Baum Stadium brings to college baseball, which is why it has been the host to five NCAA Regionals and two NCAA Super Regionals.

Baum Stadium was one of the nation's best facilities when it was constructed, but since then it has undergone four renovations, making it the envy of visiting teams. The first upgrade came prior to the 2003 season, when the hitting and pitching cages were enclosed to ensure a place for Razorback players to practice year round. A total of 2,600 chair back seats also were added to the park, 1,300 of which reside on each foul line.

Baum Stadium's second renovation came a year later as 12 luxury boxes, coaches' offices, a new scoreboard and natural grass completely changed the feel of the park. A state-of-the-art scoreboard added full video, complete with a message center and an analog clock was added to the right-center field gap, which stood 45-feet high and 76-feet wide. The original turf field of Baum Stadium's construction was torn out and rye grass was grown for the 2004 campaign, but replaced by a hybrid Bermuda in 2005. A portion of the upgrades were made possible by contributions from the Willard and Pat Walker Charitable Foundation, Bob and Marilyn Bogle, the Pagnozzi Charities, John Tyson and Stan Ley.

The next renovation to Baum Stadium came prior to the 2007 season as 20 luxury boxes were built, 1,000 chair back seats were added, restrooms constructed and the Hog Pen and picnic area expanded. A new ticket office, field lights and wall pads were added as well. The final set of upgrades to the park brought Baum Stadium's capacity to 10,737 seats with 8,237 of those coming from chair backs and 34 from luxury boxes.

In the fall of 2011, future renovations to Baum Stadium were announced that will ensure the stadium remains among the best in college baseball. New LED ribbon boards were added in 2013, and the Fowler Family Baseball and Track Training Center opened in the fall of 2014, providing the Arkansas with the finest collegiate indoor facility in the country. The facility provides approximately 52,000 square feet of climate-controlled practice space, including a full-size practice infield, throwing area, batting areas and ancillary team spaces.

In 2016, the university's partnership with South Dakota-based Daktronics produced the largest video board ever installed at an on-campus college baseball facility in the country. The massive, new 25 foot by 71 foot LED video board will enhance an already memorable experience at Baum Stadium by providing 1,775 square feet of digital space for live high-definition video, instant replays, up-to-the-minute statistics, and game information, graphics and animations.

Future plans also call for luxury suites in left and right fields and a concourse that goes around the entire stadium and a new center field entrance to the stadium.

The combination of the upgrades prior to the 2007 season and a top-10 baseball team produced then-record attendance numbers as Arkansas smashed its school record for the fourth straight year. The Razorbacks became the first team in NCAA history to average more than 8,000 tickets sold per game (8,069) as their attendance over 33 home games was 266,270. Arkansas also set a then-school record for actual attendance with 198,218 fans (6,007 per game) passing through the gates.

In 2007, Razorback fans helped set the school and then-Southeastern Conference three-game series attendance record in the May 4-6 weekend series against LSU, buying 30,564 tickets.

The attendance figures drawn to Baum Stadium allowed Fayetteville to host its third NCAA Regional in four years in 2007 and its fourth since 1999. Razorback fan support did not flounder as the regional was the best attended of all 16 sites, averaging 6,452 fans over its six games.

In April 2009, Baum Stadium played host to its first No. 1 versus No. 1 battle when the Razorbacks took on Arizona State. In game two of the midweek series, 11,014 fans were in attendance while 11,434 tickets were sold. Both numbers were then-facility records, topping the previous mark of 10,581 fans to see Arkansas defeat LSU in 2007.

The two-game series against the Sun Devils brought 17,300 fans through the turnstiles, a Razorback midweek record, and the 19,776 tickets sold were also a midweek series highmark.

Arkansas set a new attendance standard at Baum Stadium during the 2010 season as a record 292,734 tickets were sold to see the Razorbacks. Arkansas finished second in the country in both total attendance and average attendance (7,704). In part because of the great fan support, Arkansas was selected as an NCAA Regional host for the fifth time in program history. The regional drew more than 40,000 fans, averaging 5,276 fans per game over the eight contests.

Razorback fans continued to pack Baum Stadium in 2011 as Arkansas had six of the 20 largest crowds in school history in terms of tickets sold. The U of A set a new single-game attendance record on April 9, 2011, when 11,103 fans crammed into Baum Stadium to see the Razorbacks defeat LSU 4-3 on James McCann's walk-off three-run homer in the bottom of the ninth.

The 2012 season saw Arkansas play a school-record 36 regular season home games. The Razorbacks finished second in the country in average attendance and third in total attendance. A total of 260,468 tickets were sold over the 33 home dates, an average of 7,892 tickets sold per game. Arkansas sold more than 7,000 tickets for 23 of the team's 36 home games.

Arkansas again ranked second in the country in average attendance in 2013 with 8,335 tickets sold per game. The Razorbacks' total attendance of 250,055 was fourth in the nation, marking the ninth straight year Baum Stadium ranked in the top five nationally in attendance.

In 2004, Baum Stadium served as host to its second NCAA Regional and first NCAA Super Regional, drawing the largest total attendance in the nation for both events. The series-clinching win over Florida State drew 10,027 fans to Baum Stadium, eclipsing the previous night's record of 9,338, set less than 24 hours earlier. In all, a combined 58,138 attended the NCAA Regional and Super Regional during the 2004 season.

Arkansas' 2004 attendance numbers were no fluke as fans continued to pour into the ballpark. The 2005 and 2006 crowds continued to set records for both paid and actual attendance. While the NCAA and SEC recognize tickets sold as their method of ranking schools, Arkansas keeps both actual patrons as well as paid attendance figures and have seen steady increases in both areas.

In an informal study by the Baton Rouge (La.) Advocate, Arkansas led the nation in actual attendance between 2004 and 2007 and was edged by LSU in 2008 by 20 fans as patrons returned to Baton Rouge's Alex Box Stadium in its final season.

Baum Stadium is the culmination of a vision that was possible only through the dedication of former Arkansas head coach Norm DeBriyn, former U of A Athletics Director Frank Broyles and contributions by the families of Willard and Pat Walker and Charlie Baum.

While the efforts of DeBriyn and Broyles have been instrumental in maintaining a state-of-the-art home for Arkansas baseball since the original George Cole Field opened in 1975, it was the generosity of the Baums and Walkers that allowed Arkansas to abandon plans to renovate its former facility and replace it with a new standard in college baseball venues.

The support of the George Cole family has been an integral part of the program's growth since the former Razorback athlete, coach and athletics director donned the Cardinal and White many years ago.

"Without the support of the Charlie Baum, Willard Walker and George Cole families, this wouldn't have been possible," DeBriyn said when Baum Stadium opened. "It's an incredible facility and there is not one like it anywhere in the country. There is no way to describe the excitement our players and coaches have when they take the field."

Representatives of all three families attended the groundbreaking ceremony on Oct. 12, 1994. Eighteen months later, Arkansas' Matt Carnes delivered Baum Stadium's first pitch to Auburn's Russell Whittenburg, completing the dream. The Razorbacks defeated the Auburn Tigers 9-2 in the stadium's inaugural contest.

Named for the late Razorback shortstop and athletics director, George Cole Field served as Arkansas' home field from 1975 until 1996.

With a capacity of 3,000, George Cole Field was located just north of John McDonnell Field.

When it opened in 1975, George Cole Field enabled the Razorbacks to leave the field at the Washington County Fairgrounds and move into an on-campus facility for the first time.

Setting the trend for Arkansas having the finest college baseball park in the nation, George Cole Field was one of the few with artificial turf.

Donations from former Razorbacks Tim Lollar, Johnny Ray and Kevin McReynolds and their agent, Tom Selakovich, provided for the installation of lights at George Cole Field in 1985. On March 22 of that season, the Hogs defeated Southwest Conference rival Texas 5-4 in the first night baseball game on the Arkansas campus. Later that season, George Cole Field played host to the Southwest Conference Tournament for the first time. Arkansas defeated Texas 10-6 in the championship game to win its first conference tournament title. The SWC tournament came to Fayetteville again in 1988.

When the Razorbacks entered the Southeastern Conference in 1992, UA officials recognized the need to improve the school's baseball facility. While plans originally called for the improvement of George Cole Field, generous donations from the Willard and Pat Walker and Charlie Baum families, along with former Razorback Tom Pagnozzi, enabled the Razorbacks to scrap the renovation plans and start from scratch with an entirely new state-of-the-art facility.

During its 21 seasons, George Cole Field was home to a number of future major-leaguers, including Pagnozzi, Ray, McReynolds, Lollar, Les Lancaster and Jeff King.

Although the original George Cole Field played host to its last game on March 31, 1995, as South Carolina defeated Arkansas 13-2, the spirit endures in the official name of the Razorbacks' current facility: Baum Stadium at George Cole Field.

A native of Bauxite, Arkansas, Cole served as athletics director from July 1, 1970, until his retirement on July 1, 1973. A former All-SWC quarterback for the Razorback football team, Cole scored a then-school-record 85 points as a senior in 1927. He began his administrative career at Arkansas as a football line coach in 1936 and became an assistant athletics director under the legendary John Barnhill in 1957.

FOWLER FAMILY TRAINING CENTER

The facility provides approximately 52,000 square feet of climate-controlled practice space, including a full size practice infield, throwing area, batting areas and ancillary team spaces.

> "The Fowler Family Baseball and Track Training Center will put us a step ahead of our competition. That is where we and all Razorback fans want us to be, leading the way not just in the SEC, but around the country."
> - Vice Chancellor and Director of Athletics Jeff Long

Thanks in part to the generous $2.5 million gift provided by the Wallace and Jama Fowler family, the University of Arkansas completed a brand new world class indoor training facility for baseball and track in the summer of 2015.

Dedicated on Sept. 20, 2014 as the Fowler Family Baseball and Track Center, the facility provides approximately 52,000 square feet of climate-controlled practice space, including a full size practice infield, throwing area, batting areas and ancillary team spaces.

"We are grateful to members of the Wallace and Jama Fowler family for their $2.5 million gift in support of this beautiful new facility," said Vice Chancellor and Director of Athletics Jeff Long. "The Fowlers' generous support of our institution and our students has been extraordinary. Their most recent gift for the Fowler Family Baseball and Track Training Center has helped provide Razorback student-athletes, in three of our most successful programs, a significant competitive advantage in the SEC and nationally. We are extremely honored to have the Fowlers name associated with such a transformational facility for our program."

The facility includes four batting cages with a drop down and raise up netting system that allows for baseball training and available surface space. The practice infield is suitable for live hitting with nets ensuring safe activity and observation outside the infield space and protective measures toward the facility structure.

The Fowler Family's gift marked substantial progress toward meeting the fundraising goal for the project. Additional gifts are still being sought to meet the fundraising goal for the facility being funded by a combination of capital gifts, athletic revenues and proceeds from a bond issue. The total project cost was $9.1 million.

2015 Review

Arkansas defeated Missouri State in the NCAA Fayetteville Super Regional to advance to its eighth College World Series

The Eighth College World Series

Arkansas had quite the up-and-down season, culminating in a trip to the College World Series for the eighth time in program history. Despite starting the season just 15-15 overall, the Razorbacks went on to win 25 of their final 35 games and did not lose any of their final eight conference series. It was Dave Van Horn's fourth trip to Omaha with the Razorbacks in his 13 seasons as head coach.

The Baum Way

Arkansas finished second in the country in average attendance for the third straight season with 8,290 fans per game in 2015. The Razorbacks also posted school records in actual attendance and tickets sold for a single game. The actual crowd of 12,167 against Missouri State on June 6 was the largest audience in Baum Stadium history. The 12,167 fans also marked the third largest Super Regional crowd in NCAA history. In fact, the three NCAA Fayetteville Super Regional crowds were the three largest audiences in Baum Stadium history. Arkansas was home to three of the top four postseason crowds in 2015 during Regionals and Super Regional action. The Razorbacks also sold 12,589 tickets against Mississippi State on April 25, marking the 14th largest on-campus crowd in NCAA history and the largest regular season crowd in program history.

#BennyBaseball

Andrew Benintendi was simply the best collegiate baseball player in the country in 2015. The sophomore outfielder swept every major national player of the year award, including the Golden Spikes Award and the Dick Howser Trophy. #BennyBaseball became just the third player in SEC history to lead the league in home runs and batting average, joining Rafael Palmeiro (Mississippi State in 1984) and Jeff Abbott (Kentucky in 1994) as the only players in conference history to accomplish the feat. Benintendi became the first Razorback to ever lead the nation in home runs with 20 and became the first NCAA Division I player since 2009 to hit 20 home runs and steal 20 bases in a single season. Following the season, Benintendi was drafted No. 7 overall by the Boston Red Sox, the eighth Razorback to be selected in the first round of the MLB Draft.

Dave Van Horn's Best Coaching Performance

In quite possibly the best coaching job of his 21-year Division I head-coaching career, Dave Van Horn guided a sixth team to the College World Series and his fourth here at Arkansas. The 2015 Razorbacks faced a lot of adversity, overcoming a slow start to the season and numerous injuries to reach Omaha for the second time in four years. Arkansas is one of just five teams in the nation to advance to the NCAA Tournament in each of the last 14 years (all but one of those under Van Horn) and is one of just 10 teams in the country to advance to at least three of the last seven College World Series. Van Horn now leads all SEC head coaches with six career trips to Omaha and has led Arkansas to four CWS appearances, five Super Regionals and 13 NCAA Tournament berths in his 13 seasons at the helm.

Road Warriors

One of the ways that Arkansas turned its 2015 campaign around was playing great baseball away from home. From April 18 through the end of the season, the Razorbacks won 13 of their 18 games outside of Baum Stadium. For the fifth-consecutive season the Razorbacks had to travel for a Regional and did not disappoint. Arkansas swept the Stillwater Regional with a perfect 3-0 mark and improved their Regional record over the past five years to 12-6. The Razorbacks also posted some incredible victories away from home. The stretch began in College Station, Texas following an overnight suspension due to weather. Trailing by five runs after six innings, Arkansas woke up on Sunday and used a five-run eighth to rally and defeat No. 1 Texas A&M. Later that day, the Razorbacks took the series with an 8-2 victory. Arkansas also had a heoric come-from-behind win against No. 6 Florida in the SEC Tournament. Trailing by two runs in the top of the ninth, Andrew Benintendi and Bobby Wernes both homered to drive in three runs and give Arkansas a ninth-inning lead. Zach Jackson closed the door in the bottom half to preserve the win.

Andrew Benintendi became the first Razorback to be named national player of the year, winning both the Golden Spikes Award and Dick Howser Trophy.

Arkansas continues to boast one of the best venues in all of college baseball, as Baum Stadium finished second nationally in attendance for the third-consecutive season and set a new record crowd with 12,167 fans against Missouri State on June 6 in the NCAA Fayetteville Super Regional.

Razorbacks Honored

Several Arkansas student-athletes picked up notable honors during the 2015 season, including national player of the year Andrew Benintendi. The sophomore won the Golden Spikes Award, the Dick Howser Trophy and was named Baseball America National Player of the Year, Collegiate Baseball National Player of the Year and Roy F. Kramer SEC Male Athlete of the Year. He also earned consensus All-America honors and was named the SEC Player of the Year by the league's coaches. Right-handed pitcher Zach Jackson was named All-SEC first team and to the Stillwater Regional All-Tournament team. Third baseman Bobby Wernes was named to the SEC's All-Defensive team and right-handed pitcher Keaton McKinney earned Louisville Slugger Freshman All-America and SEC All-Freshman team honors. Outfielder Tyler Spoon was named to the All-SEC Community Service team.

Four Razorbacks Drafted

For the 41st-consecutive year, Arkansas had at least one player selected in the MLB Draft. There were four draftees in the 2015 MLB Draft, including Andrew Benintendi who went to the Boston Red Sox with the No. 7 overall pick. Benintendi became just the eighth Razorback to ever be selected in the first round and was the highest overall selection since Jeff King went No. 1 overall in 1986 to the Pittsburgh Pirates. Joining Benintendi in the draft were teammates RHP Trey Killian (9th round, Colorado Rockies), 3B Bobby Wernes (30th round, Houston Astros) and OF Tyler Spoon (35th round, Boston Red Sox).

Jackson Competes With Team USA

Right-handed pitcher Zach Jackson spent the summer playing for the USA Baseball Collegiate National Team and was the 13th Razorback to don the Red, White and Blue. Head coach Dave Van Horn served as the head coach in the summer of 2014 while former Razorback RHP Trey Killian was also selected to that team. Jackson made five appearances for his country, striking out eight batters in 5.2 innings pitched and allowing just two earned runs.

Closer Zach Jackson was named All-SEC First Team by the league's coaches after he went 5-1 with nine saves and a 2.10 ERA. The right-hander struck out 89 batters in 60.0 innings pitched.

History & Records

Few schools in America enjoy as rich a history as that of the Arkansas Razorback baseball program. With eight College World Series appearances - including a national runner-up finish in 1979 - and 27 NCAA postseason appearances to its credit, the University of Arkansas has long been considered one of the nation's elite programs.

Entering their 94th season of play, the Razorbacks fielded their first team in 1897. Arkansas played for 24 years before seeing its team discontinued from 1930 to 1946. Hugo Bezdek, E.T. Pickering, T.T. McConnell, Claude Watts, Norman Coyle and Francis Schmidt served as coaches during the early days of the program. All but Watts and Coyle also served as head football coaches at the university.

The Razorbacks got back in the baseball business again in 1947 with Deke Brackett serving the first of three seasons as head coach. It was in 1950, with Razorback athletic trainer Bill Ferrell taking the reins, that modern day interest in the sport ignited for the first time. Though compiling only a 139-149 record during his 16-year tenure, the foundation was laid for what was to come.

Wayne Robbins took over for the popular Ferrell in 1966 and coached four seasons, going 50-51. His successor was a fiery young coach from Wisconsin who would eventually build the program into one of national prominence.

Norm DeBriyn was hired by Arkansas Athletics Director George Cole in 1970 and charged with making the Razorbacks competitive on a conference and national level. Arkansas baseball had not been a baseball-playing member of a league since dropping out of Southwest Conference play in 1926. One of DeBriyn's first tasks was to resume a SWC schedule, a feat which was accomplished in time for the 1974 season. His teams proved competitive in one of the nation's toughest baseball leagues and Arkansas would end up qualifying for 14 of the 15 SWC Tournaments held during the Razorbacks' membership in the league.

The Razorbacks became competitive on a larger scale as well under DeBriyn. Arkansas participated in its first NCAA postseason in 1973, DeBriyn's fourth season, and made its first trip to the NCAA College World Series in just his 10th campaign.

That trip to Omaha in 1979 saw the Razorbacks finish as national runners-up to Cal State Fullerton.

In his final season as coach in 2002, DeBriyn guided Arkansas to an NCAA Super Regional after winning the Wichita Regional with a perfect 3-0 mark. The Razorbacks came within two runs of advancing to their fifth NCAA College World Series, losing the Super Regional two games to one to host Clemson.

A new chapter in Arkansas baseball history began in 2003 when former Razorback player and graduate assistant coach Dave Van Horn was named head coach after DeBriyn retired. Since taking over at his alma mater, Van Horn has continued to grow the Razorback program with trips to the College World Series in 2004, 2009, 2012 and 2015, 12 straight NCAA Tournament berths and five super regional appearances.

Facilities have played an important role in the history of Razorback baseball. Upon DeBriyn's arrival, the Razorbacks were playing games at the run-down and disheveled Washington County Fairgrounds field barely fit for pasture land. By 1975, Arkansas had moved into George Cole Field, one of the few college ballparks in the country with an artificial playing surface. The park gave the program immediate respectability and Arkansas would advance five times to NCAA postseason play and twice to the NCAA College World Series in its first decade in the park.

Lights were added in 1985 with the help of former standouts Kevin McReynolds, Johnny Ray and Tim Lollar, a move that again advanced the program to another level.

George Cole Field was the site of the Razorback baseball program's coming of age. The Razorbacks would go 567-142-2 at the facility for a winning percentage of .799. It was the site of the school's first league tournament championship, in 1985, and home to a parade of all-conference and All-America players. McReynolds, Ray, Lollar and Tom Pagnozzi - some of the first Razorbacks to make a significant impact in Major League Baseball - were just a few of many DeBriyn pupils who honed their skills at George Cole Field and went on to excel in the majors.

Although he retired following the 2002 season, the magic continues with DeBriyn's subtle influence on the lives of Charlie Baum and Willard and Pat Walker families, key contributors to perhaps the crowning achievement of DeBriyn's tenure - Baum Stadium at George Cole Field. The 8,237-seat stadium, which can accommodate a crowd of 10,737, is unparalleled in the country in form and function and has moved the program to an even higher level of achievement.

Designed by the nationally acclaimed firm HOK, designers of such jewels as Oriole Park at Camden Yards, Coors Field and Progressive Field, Baum Stadium at George Cole Field played host to its first game on April 13, 1996, as a crowd of 3,328 saw the Razorbacks defeat Auburn in a doubleheader sweep. Named the best college baseball facility in the nation by Baseball America in 1998, the stadium has ignited the interest of Razorback fans throughout the region and helped Arkansas lead the nation in tickets sold in 2007 with 8,069 per game and set a then-NCAA record in the process.

Another crown jewel of Razorback baseball is the new Fowler Family Baseball and Track Training Center. The 52,000 square-foot climate-controlled indoor facility opened in the fall of 2014 and includes a full-size practice infield that is suitable for live hitting, fielding and base running. The facility also includes four batting cages and protective netting around the facility to ensure safe activity and observation while taking protective measures toward the facility structure.

Arkansas baseball is not just about those who have been able to play the game for a living. The Razorbacks have produced 99 all-conference selections (all since 1976 when Bill Montgomery was named All-Southwest Conference), 27 All-America picks (Lollar was the first in 1978), 15 freshman All-America selections, 58 all-conference tournament selections, four conference titles (1989, 1990, 1999, 2004), one conference tournament championship and 10 NCAA Regional Tournament championships. Since joining the SEC in 1992, Arkansas has already placed 40 players on All-SEC lists. Throughout the years, 51 former Razorbacks have played in the big leagues and eight were major league first-round draft picks in McReynolds (1981), Jeff King (1986), David Walling (1999), Nick Schmidt (2007), Logan Forsythe (2008), Zack Cox (2010), Ryne Stanek (2013) and Andrew Benintendi (2015). Many former Razorbacks have given something back to the program that helped propel them to the professional ranks, but none so much as the all-star catcher Pagnozzi. In addition to contributing the funds which made possible the Razorback clubhouse that bears his name, the annual Tom Pagnozzi Invitational Golf Tournament and surrounding events raise thousands of dollars each year for the Arkansas baseball program.

Memorable moments of Arkansas baseball vary with the observer. Arkansas' first NCAA postseason appearance in 1973 at Arlington Stadium in Arlington, Texas, will long be considered a watershed moment for DeBriyn's program. Though the Razorbacks lost two straight, it was a signal the program had arrived. Just six years later, the Razorbacks raced through the NCAA East Regional in Tallahassee, Fla., in four games to advance to the College World Series in Omaha, Neb., for the first time.

Three more wins in the then-true double elimination event put Arkansas in the championship game against Cal State Fullerton. Fullerton, playing with one loss, won the first championship game 13-10 to force a winner-take-all rematch. Fullerton won that one 2-1, sending the disappointed Razorbacks home with the national runner-up trophy.

A third-place finish at the 1985 CWS also saw the Razorbacks go through Tallahassee and started a five-year stretch in which Arkansas advanced to Omaha three times, each time on an odd year. Fifth-place finishes in 1987 and 1989 were outstanding achievements for phenomenal teams.

Arkansas played host to its first Southwest Conference Tournament in 1985, winning in three straight games at George Cole Field with an opening win over Baylor and back-to-back victories over rival Texas. It was another example of facilities playing a role in the program's success - only the addition of lights that season enabled the school to snare the tournament host honor from traditional sites Texas and Texas A&M.

Memorable moments are hard to narrow to such a small space but would include some hard-to-forget home runs and pitching performances. Ralph Kraus ushered in the school's first home night game in classic style with a home run in the bottom of the ninth inning to defeat Texas before thousands in 1985. McReynolds will long be known for his towering shots both at George Cole Field and at the SWC Tournament at Texas A&M in 1980.

There have been 12 no-hitters in school history, the most recent by the combination of Nick Schmidt, Brian McLelland and Devin Collis in 2006. They blanked Oklahoma State to join former Razorbacks Rich Erwin (1976), David Rhodes (1977), Scott Glanz (1982), Tim Deitz (1983), Fred Faust (1984), Steve Parker (1986), Dennis Fletcher-Tim Sherrill-Tim Peters (1987), Brian Cook-Brian Dennison (1991), Todd Abbott (1994), Richie Nye (1996) and Scott Roehl (2001) as no-hit specialists. Steve Krueger recorded the Southwest Conference's lowest league ERA in 1979 and 1980.

Another Nye helped the Razorbacks make history again on the final day of the 1999 regular season. Rodney Nye homered in each of his first three trips to the plate to help the Razorbacks to a victory that gave UA its first SEC Western Division and overall titles.

Baum Stadium has already seen its share of memorable games in its short lifespan, such as Arkansas' 11-run rally to beat South Carolina 17-16 in 1998 and a 16-0 win over Eastern Illinois in which David Walling fanned 16 batters to help give Norm DeBriyn his 1,000th career victory.

In 1999, the Razorbacks took their home field advantage to a new level, going 14-1 in home SEC games and ending the season with 13 consecutive conference victories at the facility. The solid play in home league games helped the Razorbacks earn division and overall league titles and brought an NCAA regional to the UA campus for the first time in school history.

In 2004, Arkansas duplicated the feat again earning a share of the SEC crown and topping the SEC West. Picked last in the division to begin the season, Van Horn guided this gritty bunch of Razorbacks to their second league title since joining the SEC. For their efforts, Arkansas earned a coveted national seed in the NCAA Tournament draw and hosted its second regional in school history.

The Razorbacks hosted the largest attended NCAA regional as 38,773 fans packed Baum Stadium for the three-day event. Arkansas didn't disappoint, although it took a historic comeback to send the home crowd away happy. Down to its last out in an elimination game against Wichita State, Arkansas got a grand slam from junior catcher Brady Toops to complete an improbable 11-9 comeback win against Wichita State. Arkansas held off the Shockers 4-3 in the regional final to secure the school's first-ever NCAA Super Regional.

The following weekend, Arkansas dominated No. 12 Florida State in a two-game sweep of the Seminoles televised nationally by ESPN. Razorback fans set a new NCAA record for super regional attendance at an on-campus venue drawing 9,338 on Friday and 10,027 on Saturday. With the 4-2 win on Saturday, Arkansas clinched its fifth College World Series berth.

Omaha did not prove as kind to the Razorbacks, as Arkansas dropped a pair of games to Texas and Arizona. Despite the quick exit, the improbable run of this underdog Razorback squad captured the imagination of UA fans everywhere, laying the groundwork for even bigger and better things to come.

During the 2009 regular season, Arkansas earned its first No. 1 ranking and defeated Arizona State in front of a then-Baum-record 11,014 fans in the facility's first matchup between top-ranked teams; the Sun Devils were also ranked No. 1 at the time.

In 2009, having swept through the Norman Regional and Tallahassee Super Regional, upsetting national seeds Oklahoma and Florida State, respectively, the Razorbacks earned their sixth trip to Omaha.

Arkansas split its first two games, besting Cal State Fullerton and then losing to LSU. The Razorbacks found themselves one out away from elimination against Virginia before Brett Eibner lifted a two-run shot to left field to tie the game. Arkansas went on to win the instant classic 4-3 in 12 innings. The Razorbacks closed out the CWS with a tie for third place.

The Razorbacks reached the College World Series for the third time under Van Horn in 2012 as Arkansas put together a memorable postseason run that saw them down old SWC rivals Rice and Baylor on their home fields. Arkansas opened its tournament run in Houston as it defeated Sam Houston State twice and downed eighth-ranked Rice in a 1-0 shutout.

The next week, Arkansas returned to the state of Texas and faced No. 4 national seed Baylor. After dropping the opener of the Super Regional, Arkansas responded by winning the next two games to punch its ticket to Omaha. The decisive game of the Super Regional was a classic pitcher's duel. The game was scoreless until the top of the 10th inning when Arkansas broke through on Jake Wise's RBI single, scoring Brian Anderson. Randall Fant, Nolan Sanburn, Brandon Moore, Trent Daniel and Colby Suggs combined to shut down the high-powered Baylor offense and send Arkansas to Omaha.

In the College World Series, the Razorbacks opened by winning its first two games, defeating Kent State 8-1 in the opener and then downing South Carolina 2-1 to snap the Gamecocks' 22-game NCAA postseason win streak. Arkansas would finish tied for third in the CWS after South Carolina defeated the Razorbacks twice.

The 2015 season saw the greatest individual performance ever by an Arkansas baseball player as outfielder Andrew Benintendi became the first Razorback to win the Golden Spikes Award given to the national player of the year. The sophomore wowed the crowds at Baum Stadium as he became just the third player in SEC history to lead the league in home runs (20) and batting average (.376).

With the help of Benintendi, Arkansas had an improbable run culminating in one of the most memorable seasons in Razorback history. Entering April at 14-14, Arkansas went on a tear, going 21-8 in its final 29 games and earned a two-seed in the NCAA Tournament.

Arkansas headed to the Stillwater Regional and cruised through, winning all three games they played win the Regional and host a Super Regional the following week against national seed Missouri State.

The Razorbacks split the first two games of the Fayetteville Super Regional setting up a winner-take-all third game. Behind a raucous and stadium-record crowd of 12,167 fans, first team All-SEC closer Zach Jackson took the mound with a one run lead and 11 outs standing between the Razorbacks and Omaha. Jackson retired 11 straight, including a series-ending strikeout that sent Baum Stadium into hysteria and the Razorbacks to the College World Series for the third time in the past seven years.

A rich history with legendary players, coaches and games make Arkansas baseball a unique and treasured program. With Baum Stadium as a backdrop for the Razorbacks' continued competition in the toughest league in the nation, Arkansas baseball promises to bring fans many more great moments for many years to come.

Former Arkansas players have made an appearance in Major League Baseball, starting with Chuck Tompkins in 1912.

DRAFT STREAK

Arkansas has had at least one player selected in each of the past 41 MLB Drafts, dating back to 1975. In the 2013 MLB Draft, Arkansas led the nation with 11 players selected, marking the second time (1985) it has had double figure players taken in a single draft.

KEUCHEL'S DOMINANCE

Dallas Keuchel was phenomenal in 2015, turning in one of the most dominant seasons ever by a pitcher. The southpaw went 20-8 with a perfect 15-0 mark at home, striking out 216 in a league-high 232.0 innings pitched and posting a 2.48 ERA. He became the second Razorback (joining Cliff Lee) to ever win the Cy Young Award and also earned his second straight AL Gold Glove.

ALL-STAR PERFORMANCES

Five former Razorbacks have combined to make nine MLB All-Star game appearances, with Cliff Lee leading the way with four. Dallas Keuchel started on the mound for the American League team in the 2015 MLB All-Star Game. Randy Jackson has made two All-Star games, followed by one appearance each from Tom Pagnozzi and Johnny Ray.

BEST OF THE BEST

Kevin McReynolds leads all #ProHogs with 211 career home runs, while Johnny Ray has a career-best 1,502 hits. Cliff Lee holds nearly every pitching record, including 143 wins on the mound and 1,824 strikeouts in 2,156.2 innings of work.

The Southeastern Conference, with its storied 82-year history of athletic achievements and academic excellence, has built perhaps the greatest tradition of intercollegiate competition in baseball of any league in the country since its inception in 1933.

An SEC squad has now appeared in the College World Series 30 of the last 31 years, including four teams in 2015. Seven SEC teams were selected for NCAA Regional play with five advancing to NCAA Super Regionals.

The SEC has sent 54 teams to the College World Series since 1990. That was accomplished despite no SEC teams making the field in 1992. LSU has now been to Omaha 14 times, Florida nine times, South Carolina six times, Georgia and Mississippi State five times, Arkansas four times, while Alabama, Tennessee and Vanderbilt have been three times each. Auburn has been twice.

SEC teams have won 10 of the last 25 national championships, with LSU winning six (1991, 1993, 1996, 1997, 2000, 2009), South Carolina winning two (2010, 2011), Vanderbilt taking home the title in 2014 and Georgia claiming the 1990 title.

The SEC has finished runner up nine times in that span, 1997, 2002, 2005, 2008, 2011, 2012, 2013, 2014 and 2015.

The SEC has averaged more than eight games played per year in the College World Series since 1990. In 2015, an SEC team played in each of the 16 games of the CWS. In 2004, 12 of the 15 games played in Omaha involved a SEC team. In 1997, the SEC had a team in 13 of the 14 games played in the CWS. Since 1990, an SEC team has played in 185 of the 376 games in the College World Series, an amazing 49 percent of games.

The SEC has played 55 games in the "Final Four" of the College World Series since 1990, an average of over three per year. Only five times, 1992, 1994, 2003, 2006 and 2007 has the SEC failed to get a team to the "Final Four" of the CWS.

The SEC Baseball Tournament drew more than 130,000 fans in 2015, better than 7,000 per game. The event has become the Birmingham metro's highest attended sporting event annually, second in the state only to NASCAR races at Talladega. Birmingham Magazine recently named it the top sporting event annually in the Birmingham area. The entire SEC Baseball Tournament was broadcast live on national television for the first time in the history of the event.

- SEC teams comprised half of the teams in the 2015 College World Series (Arkansas, Florida, LSU and Vanderbilt). Vanderbilt finished as the NCAA runner-up, giving the SEC a team in the CWS Championship Series for the eighth consecutive year.
- Just 10 programs nationally have advanced to at least three of the last seven College World Series. Five of those programs are SEC programs - Arkansas, Florida, LSU, South Carolina and Vanderbilt.
- At the conclusion of the season, the top-five spots on the national average attendance charts were SEC teams, with each of those five programs averaging better than 7,300 fans per game.
- The SEC had seven players selected in the first round of the 2015 Major League Baseball Draft. Those seven picks represented five different schools. The SEC has now had a first-round MLB selection each year since 1991 and 105 total in the first round during that time.
- Former Arkansas baseball outfielder Andrew Benintendi was named the 2014-2015 Roy F. Kramer SEC Male Athlete of the Year by a vote of the league's athletics directors.
- Benintendi won USA Baseball's Golden Spikes Award. Each of the four finalists for the award were SEC Baseball Players - Benintendi, an outfielder from Arkansas, Alex Bregman, a shortstop from LSU, Carson Fulmer, a righthanded pitcher from Vanderbilt, and Dansby Swanson, a shortstop from Vanderbilt.
- Florida catcher/designated hitter JJ Schwarz and LSU right-hander Alex Lange were named the 2015 National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association National Freshman Hitter and Pitcher of the Year recipients, giving SEC student-athletes a sweep of the national freshman of the year awards.
- Mississippi State's Seth Heck and Auburn's Cole Libscomb were named to the 2015 Capital One Academic All-America Division I Baseball Team. Heck is the 2015 SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

7th Fastest Growing Public Research University in the Nation

Amazing things are happening at the University of Arkansas. Already recognized as one of the nation's fastest growing public research universities, the U of A recently set a new enrollment record of 26,754 while also increasing the academic quality and diversity of our students.

The campus is also undergoing a major transformation with more than $500 million invested in the last few years alone to modernize and renovate our facilities. Champions Hall, one of the new additions for the 2015-16 year, is a 62,000-square-foot academic building devoted to classroom and lab space.

Champions Hall, dedicated in 2015, is the first new classroom building on campus since 2007. A significant amount of the funding for the facility was made possible by the U of A Athletics Department, which committed a portion of the university's annual share of Southeastern Conference revenues to the project. Those funds will provide approximately $18 million.

Senior Walk: The University of Arkansas boasts a unique tradition among universities nationwide: Senior Walk, consisting of more than 3 miles of sidewalks engraved with the names of more than 170,000 graduates, dating back to 1876. Senior Walk is concrete proof of the university's commitment to students.

The Chi Omega Greek Theatre has been used throughout its 85-year history for commencements, convocations, concerts, dramas and pep rallies. The iconic structure was built in 1930 and was given to the university by the national Chi Omega Fraternity, which was founded on the U of A campus in 1895.

The University of Arkansas provides an internationally competitive education for undergraduate and graduate students in more than 200 academic programs. The university contributes new knowledge, economic development, basic and applied research, and creative activity while also providing service to academic and professional disciplines.

The Carnegie Foundation classifies the University of Arkansas among only 2 percent of universities in America that have the highest level of research activity. U.S. News & World Report ranks the University of Arkansas among its top American public research universities.

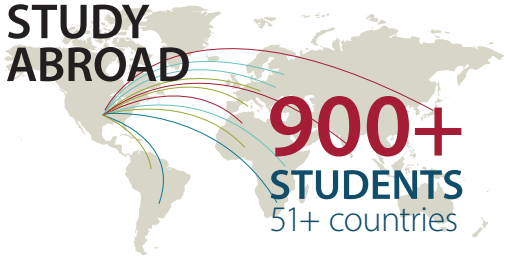

Founded in 1871, the University of Arkansas comprises 10 colleges and schools and maintains a low student-to-faculty ratio that promotes personal attention and close mentoring.

DR. JOSEPH E. STEINMETZ \\ CHANCELLOR

Joseph E. Steinmetz became the sixth chancellor of the University of Arkansas on January 1, 2016. Prior to this appointment, he was Ohio State's chief academic officer. As executive vice president and provost, he oversaw the administration, coordination, and development of all academic functions of the university.

Dr. Steinmetz came to Ohio State in 2009 to serve as vice provost for arts and sciences and executive dean of the then-new College of Arts and Sciences. With his leadership, the former five independent colleges of arts and sciences were unified into the largest arts and sciences college in the country.

Before coming to Ohio State, Dr. Steinmetz was dean of the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences at the University of Kansas, where he was also a university distinguished professor. Before Kansas, Dr. Steinmetz spent 19 years at Indiana University, Bloomington where he served as Chair of the Department of Psychology, Executive Associate Dean of Arts and Sciences and a Distinguished Professor of Psychological and Brain Science.

A nationally respected behavioral neuroscientist, Dr. Steinmetz was recognized in 1996 by the National Academy of Sciences for his contributions to the fields of experimental psychology and neuroscience. In 2012 he was named an AAAS Fellow.

His research interests include neuroanatomical and neurophysiological substrates of learning and memory; the effects of alcohol on neural and behavioral function; neurobiological and behavioral models of fetal alcohol syndrome; and the neurobiology of simple human learning, memory, and cognitive function.

Dr. Steinmetz earned his bachelor's and master's degrees at Central Michigan University and his doctorate at Ohio University. He and his wife, Sandy, have two sons and four grandchildren.

DR. SHARON HUNT \\ FACULTY ATHLETICS REPRESENTATIVE

Former Chancellor G. David Gearhart appointed Dr. Sharon Hunt to be the faculty athletics representative (FAR) for the University of Arkansas in August 2010.

Dr. Hunt is the first woman and non-lawyer to hold the post. Dr. Hunt has been on the University of Arkansas faculty since 1990, and she served as the department head of the recently renamed Department of Health, Human Performance and Recreation from July 1, 1990 until June 30, 2011 except for the 2000-01 academic year, when she served as the interim dean of the College of Education and Health Professions. On June 30, 2011 Dr. Hunt stepped down as department head and returned to the faculty at the rank of Professor giving her more time to devote to the FAR position.

A high school athlete, Hunt's involvement with collegiate athletics dates back to her own college days at the University of Arkansas when she played extramural sports with the women's basketball and tennis teams prior to the enactment of Title IX. After receiving her bachelor's and master's degrees in physical education from the university, she went on to earn a Doctor of Education degree from the University of Georgia, where she taught a variety of undergraduate courses as a graduate assistant. Upon the completion of her doctoral degree, she joined the faculty of the University of Kentucky for 13 years, where she taught both undergraduate and graduate courses and served as the graduate coordinator for the Department of Health, Physical Education and Recreation. In 1990, she and her family returned to Fayetteville.

The FAR's responsibilities lie in three broad areas: academic integrity within the athletics program, student-athlete well-being, and institutional control of the athletics program. Dr. Hunt is involved in the student-athlete advisory council on campus and chairs the Academic Credential Review Committee and Athletic's Academic Integrity Committee, and serves as an ex-officio member of the Faculty Athletics Committee. In addition, she travels to represent the University of Arkansas at various SEC and NCAA meetings.

Dr. Hunt was instrumental in establishing the graduate athletic training education program in the College of Education and Health Professions, and she has worked closely with athletics on that program. The athletics department provides support to students in the athletic training education program in the form of a stipend, books and travel to the Arkansas Athletic Trainers' Association annual meeting. Two endowed scholarships for athletic training students in honor of longtime Razorback trainers Dean Weber and the late Bill Ferrell were established through the athletics department. Dr. Hunt has been married to David Hunt since 1973, and they have an adult son and daughter as well as one grandson and granddaughter.

UNIVERSITY OF ARKANSAS LEADERSHIP

The Board of Trustees of the University of Arkansas serve as the institution's governing body. The board is comprised of 10 trustees representing each of the state's four congressional districts. The president is the chief executive officer of the University of Arkansas System and reports to the Board of Trustees. Each campus has a chancellor as its chief executive officer, reporting directly to the president.

A MESSAGE FROM CHANCELLOR STEINMETZ

Razorback baseball fans are some of the best you'll find anywhere – ranking in the top five nationally in attendance for more than a decade. Your consistent support has helped Coach Van Horn's teams advance to NCAA Tournament play for 14 years in a row including a thrilling late-season finish and trip to the College World Series in 2015. Baum Stadium at George Cole Field is one of the nation's finest college baseball facilities and I'm looking forward to seeing it full of cheering Razorback fans this season.

We are equally proud of the success of our student-athletes in the classroom. They set a new record with a combined GPA of 3.24 last spring and have extended their streak to seven years with an average cumulative GPA of 3.0 or more. Our student-athletes also devote a great deal of time volunteering on campus and in the region.

Razorback Athletics, unlike most departments across the country, is fiscally independent and entirely self-sustaining. Your great fan support combined with the careful management of resources allows the department to be self-sustaining. We couldn't do it without you.

On behalf of the entire University of Arkansas family, thank you for your passionate support of the Razorbacks.

Go Hogs!

JEFF LONG

VICE CHANCELLOR & DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Entering his eighth full year as Vice Chancellor and Director of Athletics, Jeff Long has helped transform the University of Arkansas' Department of Intercollegiate Athletics into one of the most nationally respected programs in the country. Long, the 2015 SportsBusiness Journal (SBJ) and SportsBusiness Daily (SBD) Athletic Director of the Year, led the program, encompassing 19 sports and more than 460 student-athletes, to the most successful year in the history of the University of Arkansas intercollegiate athletics.

Even by the elevated standard of success set for an all-sports program consistently winning Southeastern Conference (SEC) and NCAA championships, the 2014-15 academic year was truly extraordinary for Razorback Athletics. Arkansas earned a program-best 16th-place finish in the Learfield Sports Directors Cup standings. Arkansas was the only Division I school in the nation in 2014-15 to win a bowl game, games in both the NCAA Men's and Women's Basketball Tournaments and an NCAA Baseball Regional. The Razorback baseball team went on to advance to the College World Series for the third time in the past seven years. Arkansas has finished in the top 30 in the Directors Cup seven times in the past eight years.

In Long's tenure, Arkansas has captured 23 conference championships and advanced to 110 post-season competitions, including the school's first Bowl Championship Series appearance in football and national titles at the 2013 NCAA Men's Indoor Track and Field Championships and the 2015 NCAA Women's Indoor Track and Field Championships.

In the classroom, the Razorbacks continue to set new standards including posting a school record student-athlete grade point average of 3.24 in 2014-15. It marked the seventh consecutive year Razorback student-athletes posted a GPA exceeding 3.0 and eclipsed a goal set to reach 3.2 or above by the year 2021. For the third consecutive year, Arkansas exceeded the national APR multi-year rate in all 19 sports. Graduation success rates continue to rise with more than 200 current or former Razorback student-athletes graduating in the past two years.

Student-athlete development has also been a priority including the continued success of the Razorback Leadership Academy, the first comprehensive leadership program of its kind in the Southeastern Conference. In the community, Razorback student-athletes volunteered more than 4,200 hours for various agencies, organizations and schools around the state.

Long helped lead the Razorback program to unprecedented success, all, while representing his institution and the state in one of the most influential positions in all of sports. Long's appointment as the first ever CFP chairman provided further evidence that he is already one of the most respected and influential leaders within intercollegiate athletics. In 2014, he chaired a committee of 13 distinguished individuals in selecting the best four teams for the inaugural playoff. Long was selected by his fellow committee members to serve as chairman again for the 2015 season.

Even before his appointment as the CFP Selection Committee's Chairman, Long's leadership and unwavering commitment to the student-athletes and maintaining integrity within intercollegiate athletics had not gone unnoticed. In 2013, Long was named as an Under Armour Athletics Director of the Year for the Football Bowl Subdivision. In 2012, Long was named a finalist for the SBJ/SBD Athletic Director of the Year. In the spring of 2012, the Donald W. Reynolds Foundation and longtime chairman Fred W. Smith made a combined gift of more than $1.25 million to the program in recognition of Long's leadership of Razorback Athletics.

The Long family (l-r): Jeff, Fanny, Christina, Stephanie and Cuddles.

A member of the Chancellor's Executive Committee, Long is helping to chart the course for the future of higher education at the University of Arkansas while integrating Razorback Athletics into the campus community. In each of the past five years, Razorback Athletics has transferred funds totaling more than $1 million to support the university's academic mission. For 2015-16, the department's total support of university and student programs and initiatives will include $2.25 million in direct funding of academic programs including financial support for Champions Hall, a new classroom and laboratory building, to serve the entire University of Arkansas student population.

Long was selected to replace legendary athletic director and former Razorback football coach Frank Broyles and even before he officially took the reins on Jan. 1, 2008, Arkansas announced that it would combine its previously independent men's and women's athletic programs. Long adeptly blended the athletic programs into one unified department and established a new administrative structure.

Under Long's leadership, the program has fortified its financial standing ensuring more support for the development of student-athletes. According to USA Today, Arkansas is one of only 23 financially self-sustaining FBS athletic programs in the nation. As economic indicators were beginning to point toward challenging economic times, Long signed Arkansas to a decade long deal with IMG College to form Razorback Sports Properties that guarantees the Razorback program $73 million. Long also negotiated an extensive all-sports apparel and footwear agreement with NIKE, Inc. for all 19 Razorback sports programs.

In 2010, Long moved to help meet the growing financial needs of fielding a nationally competitive all-sports program. The athletic department launched the "Answer the Call" campaign through the Razorback Foundation which resulted in more than 2,600 new members and helped generate more than $6.5 million in additional support for Razorback student-athletes.

In 2014-15, more than $45 million was raised in support of Razorback Athletics, marking the single best year of fundraising in the program's history. The total included a $10.65 million gift from the family of former Razorback and Dallas Cowboys owner Jerry Jones, the largest gift to athletics in more than two decades.

With an eye towards the future, Long commissioned a comprehensive plan to assess the future facility needs of the program. Unveiled in October 2011, the Razorback Athletic Facilities Master Plan provided a vision and the road map for $320 million of facility renovations and additions that will help all 19 Razorback sports remain competitive in the SEC and nationally over the next 30 years.

Projects already completed as part of the plan include the Fred W. Smith Football Center, the Fowler Family Baseball and Track Training Center, extensive renovations of the George Billingsley Tennis Center, Razorback Field (soccer) and the Fred W. Smith and Mary B. Smith Golf Training Facility. In the fall of 2014, the Razorback Track and Field Honors Plaza, featuring a statue of Arkansas' legendary coach John McDonnell, was dedicated at the outdoor track and field facility bearing his name (John McDonnell Field). In the fall of 2015, a Basketball Performance Center and the Jerry and Gene Jones Family Student-Athlete Success Center opened to Razorback student-athletes.

According to a recent economic impact study, Razorback Athletics will have an estimated economic impact of more than $1 billion in five years. The study estimated Razorback Athletics generates $153.6 million annually to the region's economy. Planned athletic construction during the course of the next five years will generate another $239.7 million.

A veteran administrator with a track record of the highest commitment to the concept of "student-athlete," Long has had more than two decades experience in athletic administration at the Division I level including at the University of Pittsburgh, University of Oklahoma, University of Michigan, Virginia Tech University, Eastern Kentucky University and Rice University. Long also understands the coach's perspective from time spent in coaching staff positions at Duke University, University of Michigan and North Carolina State University.

His experience as an athletic director and administrator in five of the six Bowl Championship Series conferences – the Big 12, Big Ten, Big East, Atlantic Coast and SEC - gives Long a uniquely informed perspective on intercollegiate athletics.

On the forefront of NCAA governance, Long has served on the NCAA Management Council, the NCAA's Sports Wagering Task Force and as a member of the Executive Committee of the Division I-A Athletic Directors' Association. Long served on the NCAA Championships/Sports Management Cabinet.

Prior to assuming his current roles at Arkansas, Long served for four years as the athletic director at the University of Pittsburgh. Long redefined Pitt athletics, most notably through the "Quest for Excellence" campaign that raised nearly $34 million to enhance the student-athlete experience. During his tenure, the program was selected No. 17 in the nation in the 2006 Sports Illustrated on Campus' All-Sport Rankings.
Before arriving at Pitt, Long was senior associate athletic director at Oklahoma for two and a half years overseeing external affairs for the Sooners. In addition, Long was the primary administrator for the Sooners' highly successful football and men's basketball programs, along with sport supervision of baseball, wrestling and both golf teams.

Long's first appointment as a director of athletics was at Eastern Kentucky where he served for two and a half years. Prior to Eastern, Long had a brief stay with Virginia Tech as an associate athletics director.

He began his career in college athletic administration at Michigan, hired by legendary coach and athletics director, the late Bo Schembechler. During his seasons with the Wolverines, Long was promoted through a series of posts to the position of associate athletics director.

A former two-sport athlete at Ohio Wesleyan, Long earned seven varsity letters for the Bishops in football and baseball before completing his degree in economics in 1982. He started his post-graduate career in athletics working on head coach Tom Reed's staff as a graduate assistant football coach at the cradle of coaches, Miami University of Ohio. Long earned his master's in education at Miami in 1983, moving on to football staff positions at Rice, Duke and N.C. State prior to joining Michigan.

An Ohio native from Kettering, Long is married to the former Fanny Gellrich of Ann Arbor, Mich. The Longs have two daughters, Stephanie and Christina.
